

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 91st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

---

TWENTIETH DAY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 2002

Speaker Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Sometimes, God, the struggles seem overwhelming, the challenges just too obstinate. These men and women, our elected representatives, have much to confront this session. Some, especially those who cannot be with us next session, may be tempted to relinquish some of the battle.

We pray for them especially today and ask You to rally round them that they might continue to give of their best. To all these men and women, honorable in motive and action, give special strength in office or conference today and throughout this legislative session. Help them serve our state and our citizens in whatever way they can. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Nicole Nordwald.

The Journal of the nineteenth day was approved as printed.

Representative Crump suggested the absence of a quorum.

Further amend said bill, Page 5, Section 32.378, Line 81, by inserting after said line the following:

“32.380. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, with respect to taxes administered by the department of revenue, an amnesty from the assessment or payment of all penalties, additions to tax and interest shall apply with respect to unpaid taxes reported and paid in full during the period from August 1, 2002, through and including September 30, 2002, regardless of whether previously assessed, except for penalties, additions and interest already paid before such date. This amnesty shall only apply to state tax liabilities due but unpaid on or before December 31, 2001, and shall not extend to any taxpayer who at the time of payment:

(a) Is a party to any criminal investigations or to any civil or criminal litigation that is pending in any court of the United States or the state of Missouri for nonpayment, delinquency, or fraud in relation to any state tax imposed by Missouri law;

(b) Is a party to an appeal with the Administrative Hearing Commission; or

(c) Is a party to a protest with the department of revenue.

2. Upon written application by the taxpayer, as prescribed by the director of revenue, and upon compliance with the terms and provisions of this act, the department shall not seek to collect any interest, nor any penalties that may be applicable. In addition, the department shall not seek civil or criminal prosecution for any taxpayer for the taxable period for which amnesty has been granted.

3. Amnesty will be granted only to those taxpayers who have applied for amnesty within the period stated in this act, filed a tax return for each taxable period for which amnesty is requested, have paid the entire balance due within 60 days of approval by the department of revenue and agree to comply with Missouri tax laws for the next three years from the date of the agreement. No taxpayer shall be entitled to a waiver of penalty or interest pursuant to this section unless full payment of the tax due is made in accordance with rules and procedures established by the director of revenue.

4. There may be imposed a collection fee, not to exceed 25% of the delinquent tax amount, which shall not be subject to waiver or abatement, in addition to all other penalties and interest otherwise authorized by law, upon any tax liabilities eligible to be satisfied during the period established pursuant to subsection 1 of this section that are not satisfied during the amnesty period.

5. If a taxpayer elects to participate in the program established pursuant to this section, as that election shall be evidenced by full payment of the tax due as established by the director of revenue, then that election shall constitute an express and absolute relinquishment of all administrative and judicial rights of appeal. No tax payment pursuant to this section shall be eligible for refund or credit.

6. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to disallow the department to adjust a taxpayer’s return as a result of a state or federal audit.

7. The department may promulgate such rules or regulations or issue administrative guidelines as are necessary to administer the provisions of this section. No rule or portion of a rule promulgated pursuant to the authority of this section shall become effective unless it has been promulgated pursuant to the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo.

Section B. Because there is a serious and immediate need for a tax amnesty program for this state, the enactment of section 32.380 is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, welfare, peace and safety, and is hereby declared to be an emergency act within the meaning of the constitution, and the enactment of section 32.380 shall be in full force and effect upon its passage and approval.”.
