

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 91st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FORTY-EIGHTH DAY, MONDAY, APRIL 8, 2002

Speaker Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Lord God, Your creative utterance makes the sun to shine and the rain to fall. As the rains fall across our state today, let the moisture of Your Spirit water the thoughts and actions of this great Chamber, that advance in all that is good - justice, peace, progress, security, dignity - will take place here and in all parts of our state.

As many difficult and important labors on the state budget and other weighty matters were concluded last week, may this week bring movement and decision on the bills at hand. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the forty-seventh day was approved as corrected.

Representative Smith offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 1489 by inserting all the following in the appropriate location:

“143.782. As used in sections 143.782 to 143.788, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following terms shall mean and include:

(1) "Debt", any sum due and legally owed to any state agency which has accrued through contract, subrogation, tort, or operation of law regardless of whether there is an outstanding judgment for that sum, court costs as defined in section 488.010, fines and fees owed to a court, or any support obligation which is being enforced by the division of family services on behalf of a person who is receiving support enforcement services pursuant to section 454.425, RSMo;

(2) "Debtor", any individual, sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation or other legal entity owing a debt;

(3) "Department", the department of revenue of the state of Missouri;

(4) "Refund", the Missouri income tax refund which the department determines to be due any taxpayer pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. The amount of a refund shall not include any senior citizens property tax credit provided by sections 135.010 to 135.035, RSMo;[and,]

(5) "State agency", any department, division, board, commission, office, or other agency of the state of Missouri, including public community college district; and,

(6) "Court", the Supreme Court, court of appeals, or any circuit court of the state.”; and

Further amend said bill by inserting the following in the appropriate location:

“Section 1. 1. Upon an individual’s failure to pay court costs, fines, fees or other sums ordered by a court as payable to the state, a court may report any such delinquencies in excess of twenty-five dollars to the Office of State Courts Administrator and request that the State Courts Administrator seek a setoff of an income tax refund.

2. The Office of State Courts Administrator shall give the department of revenue the information necessary to identify each debtor whose refund is sought to be set off and the amount of the debt or debts owed by each such debtor who is entitled to a refund in excess of twenty-five dollars.

3. The department of revenue shall notify the Office of State Courts Administrator that a refund has been set off on behalf of a court and shall certify the amount of such setoff, which shall not exceed the amount of the claimed debt certified. When the refund owed exceeds the claimed debt, the department of revenue shall send the excess amount to the debtor within a reasonable time after such excess is determined.

4. The department of revenue shall notify the debtor by mail that a set off has been sought. The notice shall contain the following:

- (1) the name of the debtor;
- (2) the manner in which the debt arose;
- (3) the amount of the claimed debt and the department’s intention to set off the refund against the debt;
- (4) the amount, if any, of the refund due after set off of the refund against the debt; and
- (5) the right of the debtor to apply in writing to the court originally requesting set off for review of the set off because the debt was previously satisfied.

Any debtor applying to the court for review of the set off must file a written application within thirty days of the date of mailing of the notice and send a copy of the application to the Office of State Courts Administrator. The application for review of the set off shall contain the name of the debtor, the case name and number from which the debt arose, and the grounds for review. The court may upon application, or on its own motion, hold a hearing on the application. The hearing shall be ancillary to the original action with the only matter for determination whether the refund set off was appropriate because the debt was unsatisfied at the time the court reported the delinquency to the Office of State Courts Administrator and that the debt remains unsatisfied.

In the case of a joint or combined return, the notice sent by the department shall contain the name of the nonobligated taxpayer named in the return, if any, against whom no debt is claimed. The notice shall state that as to the nonobligated taxpayer that no debt is owed and that the taxpayer is entitled to a refund regardless of the debt owed by such other person or persons named on the joint or combined return. The nonobligated taxpayer may seek a refund as provided in RSMo 143.784.

5. Upon receipt of funds transferred from the department of revenue to the Office of State Courts Administrator pursuant to a refund set off, the State Courts Administrator shall deposit such funds in the state treasury to be held in an escrow account, which is hereby established. Interest earned on those funds shall be credited to the escrow account and used to offset administrative expenses. If a debtor files with a court an application for review, the State Courts Administrator shall hold such sums in question until directed by that court to release the funds. If no application for review is filed, the State Courts Administrator shall, within forty-five days of receipt of funds from the department, send to the clerk of the court in which the debt arose such sums as are collected by the department of revenue for credit to the debtor's account.”; and “488.5021. 1. In addition to any other assessment authorized by law, a court may assess a fee of twenty dollars on each person who pays a court ordered penalty, fine or sanction on a time payment basis, including parking penalties, restitution and juvenile monetary assessments. A time payment basis shall be any penalty, fine or sanction not paid, in full, within thirty days of the date the court imposed the fine, penalty or sanction. Imposition of the time payment fee shall be in addition to any other enforcement provisions authorized by law.

Further amend said bill by inserting the following in the appropriate location:

2. Eight dollars of the time payment fee collected pursuant to this section shall be payable to the clerk of the court of the county from which such fee was collected, or to such person as is designated by local circuit court rule as treasurer of said fund, and said fund shall be applied and expended under the direction and order of the court en banc of any such county to be utilized by the court to improve, maintain and enhance the ability to collect and manage moneys assessed or received by the courts, to improve case processing, enhance court security or to improve the administration of justice. Seven dollars of the time payment fee shall be deposited in the statewide court automation fund pursuant to section 476.055, RSMo. Five dollars of the time payment fee shall be deposited in the drug court resources fund pursuant to section 478.009, RSMo.”; and

Further amend the title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Rector offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 1488, Page 1, Section 92.402, Lines 9 and 10, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"the provisions of section 92.421. The remainder of the tax in excess of such seven and one-half percent shall expire on December 31, 2003, [on which date] except in any home rule city with more than four hundred thousand inhabitants and located in more than one county in which the governing body of the city submits to the voters of that city in the general election in November 2002 and every ten years thereafter a proposal to extend the remainder of the tax in excess of such seven and one-half percent pursuant to subsection 5 of this section. The authority shall be in full"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 1, Section 92.402, Line 12, by inserting immediately after the word "Act" the following: "on December 31, 2003"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 2, Section 92.402, Line 25, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"5. The ballot of submission shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following language:

Shall the remainder of the tax in excess of the seven and one-half percent for the benefit of the public mass transportation system imposed in the manner provided in section 92.402, RSMo, be extended for ten years?

☐ YES

☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "YES". If you are opposed to the question, place an "X" in the box opposite "NO".

If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the proposal, then the tax shall remain in effect for ten years following the November general election. If a majority of the votes cast by the qualified voters voting are opposed to the proposal, then the remainder of the tax in excess of such seven and one-half percent shall expire on December 31, 2003."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Rector moved that House Amendment No. 1 be adopted.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 1869, Page 1, Section 71.203, Line 7, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"84.570. 1. No person shall be appointed [policeman or] officer of police who shall have been convicted of any offense, the punishment of which may be confinement in the state penitentiary; nor shall any person be appointed who is not proven to be of good character, or who is not proven to be a bona fide citizen [and resident of such city for a period of at least one year and a citizen] of the United States, or who cannot read and write the English language and who does not possess ordinary physical strength and courage, nor shall any person be originally appointed to said police force who is less than twenty-one years of age[]; provided, however, that the board of police commissioners may, upon recommendation of the chief, waive the requirement of residency in the appointment of any policeman or officer of police for the period during which such appointee shall be on probationary status; provided, however, that on completion of the probationary period such policeman or officer of police becomes a bona fide resident of such city].

2. The board shall from time to time require open competitive examinations or tests for determining the qualifications and fitness of all applicants for appointment to positions on the police force. Such examinations and tests shall be practical and shall relate to matters which fairly measure the relative fitness of the candidates to discharge the duties of the positions to which they seek to be appointed. Notice of such examinations and tests shall be given not less than ten days in advance thereof by public advertisement in at least one newspaper of general circulation in such city, and by posting notice in the police headquarters building. A list of those qualifying in such examinations shall be established, listing those qualified in order of rank. When an appointment is to be made, the appointment shall be made from such eligible list.

3. The board shall also establish rules for:

(1) Temporary employment for not exceeding sixty days in the absence of any eligible list;

- (2) Hours of work of police employees and officers subject to [the provisions of] section 84.510; and
- (3) Attendance regulations and leaves of absence."; and
