

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 91st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-SIXTH DAY, MONDAY, APRIL 22, 2002

Speaker Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

God of all politics, but even more, God of people, be with us today. For some representatives, the final four weeks of this session will make an end to this chapter of their career. Surely and understandably they now prepare to move on to new and different life tasks. Others here in this room feel caught with only one month of this session left.

There is so much to decide, to do, and so little time. Some may just be tired of the struggles that this session has brought onto this floor, into hearing rooms, in contacts with constituents. All have joys and problems of family and friends with which to be concerned.

Here is certainly a mixed bag of thoughts and emotions, God. May the crooked lines of life seem a little straighter, the confusing, perhaps overwhelming emotions seem a bit more placid, as we here have at least paused within the storm and put ourselves in Your caring and compassionate presence. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Garrett Elder, Zachary Koch, Jake Henke, Trey Kalbaugh, Kyler Kalbaugh, Molly Anderson, Mary Theresa Liese and Sarah Michelle Liese.

The Journal of the fifty-fifth day was approved as corrected.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4

Whereas, on April 24, 1915, three hundred Armenian leaders, writers, thinkers and professionals and five thousand of the poorest Armenians in Constantinople were rounded up and killed in the streets and in their homes by the Young Turk government of the Ottoman Empire; and

Whereas, from 1915 to 1923 nearly one and a half million Armenian men, women, and children out of a total of two and a half million Armenians in the Ottoman Empire were systematically sent to concentration camps, tortured and murdered by the Turks; and

Whereas, the United States was the first country to recognize the Armenian Genocide and raise millions of dollars to aid the victims of the Genocide; and

Whereas, most Armenians in the United States are children or grandchildren of the survivors of the Armenian Genocide; and

Whereas, by remembering and forcefully condemning the atrocities committed against the Armenians and honoring the survivors, as well as other victims of similar heinous conduct, we guard against repetition of such acts of genocide; and

Whereas, April 24 is the date on which Armenians around the world commemorate the Genocide in recognition of the day in 1915 when over five thousand Armenians were killed in Constantinople by the Turkish Ottoman Empire:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the members of the House of Representatives of the Ninety-first General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby declare April 24th to be a "Day of Remembrance of the Armenian Genocide"; and

Be it further resolved that all Missourians be encouraged to observe the day in a manner that honors the survivors and brings to mind the meaning and historical significance of the Armenian Genocide
