

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 91st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FIFTY-NINTH DAY, THURSDAY, APRIL 25, 2002

Speaker Pro Tem Abel in the Chair.

Prayer by Dan Russell, Chaplain of Fulton State Hospital.

O Gracious God, we thank You for the beginning of a new day; a day filled with opportunity and decisions, challenges and solutions, that lay before us as citizens. For these difficult decisions placed before this House assembly, we pray for them to have divine guidance and direction. Give them clear insight with wisdom, this day we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Marissa Mafuli, Kevin Covell, Carrie Latimore, Rob Gillam, Nicholas Patrick Russell, Travis Paxton, Brandon Paxton, Mike Johnston, Ryan Dillon, Joseph Clark, Bethany Jones, Amber Brumley and Kenneth R. Thompson, Jr.

The Journal of the fifty-eighth day was approved as corrected.

"99.944. 1. Any home rule city with more than four hundred thousand inhabitants and located in more than one county, any county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants, and any city not within a county may by ordinance establish a fund for the purpose of providing funds to community development corporations in such city for comprehensive programs within such city to stimulate economic development, housing, and other public benefits leading to the development of economically sustainable neighborhoods or communities, such fund to be known as the "Community Development Corporation Revolving Fund".

2. The community development corporation revolving fund shall be administered by a community development corporation revolving fund board, which shall consist of thirteen members appointed by the chief elected official of such municipality or county, of which one shall be a member of the local regional community development association, and one shall be an owner of a minority business. The initial members shall serve staggered terms of one, two, and three years as determined by the mayor of such city at the time of appointment. Thereafter, successor members shall be appointed by the mayor for a term of three years, and shall hold office until a successor is appointed. Any member may be removed by the mayor for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or misconduct. All vacancies shall be filled by appointment of the mayor for the unexpired term. No member shall receive compensation for the member's services, but shall be entitled to necessary and reasonable expenses, including travel expenses, incurred in the discharge of the member's duties.

3. Beginning January 1, 2003, up to five percent of the new state revenues, as defined in subsection 8 of section 99.845, from the estimated sales and business income taxes generated from developments funded pursuant to sections 99.915 to 99.984 may be available for appropriation by the general assembly to the department of economic development supplemental tax increment financing fund, from the general revenue fund, for distribution to the community development corporation revolving fund but at no time shall the amount received from the sales or business income taxes and deposited in the fund exceed one million five hundred thousand dollars annually.

4. From moneys in the community development corporation revolving fund, the community development corporation revolving fund board shall provide grants and forgivable loans to community development corporations in such city for community economic development activities implemented by such corporations. The board shall give special funding consideration to collaborations on community development projects between developers organized for profit and nonprofit developers. All expenses for such projects shall be paid for out of the community development corporation revolving fund. Any moneys appropriated, all payments in lieu of taxes, as defined in section 99.945, and any other moneys made available by gift, grant, bequest, contribution, or otherwise to carry out the purposes of this section, and all interest earned on, and income generated from, moneys in the fund shall be paid to, and deposited in, the community development corporation revolving fund."; and

Further amend said bill, Page 15, Section 99.948, Line 12, by inserting after the word "inhabitants," the following:

"for any county with a charter form of government and with more than one million inhabitants, and for any city not within a county,"; and
