

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 91st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-THIRD DAY, THURSDAY, MAY 2, 2002

Speaker Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Rudy Beard.

Great God of Truth, we put our trust in You on this National Day of Prayer, and in You we find our hope. You are the Giver of love in ways that are beyond our numbering. Help these men and women of the House, as they serve Missouri, and make tough decisions.

Many of these members of the House know the frustration and pain that accompanies leadership. Many know the pressure that comes from friends and foes. Keep them this day: patient, dedicated, hard working for our state. Protect them from a heavy heart and help them put service above self. To You be glory and honor. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Justin Fettig, Abby Harris, Jody Glazner, Kayli Pozniak, Salvatore Scavuzzo, Kyle Gilbert, Odessa Hart, Dannen Merrill, Malorie Barnett, John Morton, Randell Barnett, Katelyn Ewing, Shonna Hawks, Veronica Lenz, Elizabeth Gordon, Ryan Mack, Matthew Cierpoit, Michelle Stevenson, Derek Cole, Kassie Sachs and Colton Schwab.

The Journal of the sixty-second day was approved as corrected.

NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER OBSERVANCE

The House of Representatives wishes to pause with the rest of the country as part of the National Day of Prayer. Since the tragic events of September 11, all Americans have become more mindful of one another and the need to reflect on our many blessings.

Prayer by Representative Philip Willoughby.

Almighty God,

On this special day, we stand before You as a group of individuals with much to confess. A group that sometimes gets so focused on our own agendas we lose sight on the greater good. A group that sometimes pushes green when deep down inside, we know we should push red. But a group that collectively encourages and nudges our society toward a positive direction as best we can.

So Lord, on this special day of prayer, when our nation pauses - if even for a short time - to pay recognition to You, we find much to celebrate: For we stand as one nation under God - free. We stand as a collective body of separate individuals, whether Catholic, protestant, muslim, jewish, liberal, conservative, young and old - we still stand free. As freedom defines us, our commitment to each other unites us.

Today we recognize that in the world surrounding us, we see the pain of war, we hear too loudly the cries of children, and we feel too sharply the hurt of oppression. But in Your grace, You allow us to be free, and to lock arms with each other and march forward to make a difference in society.

So many act as Your instruments in leading us in this great nation, and we ask for Your blessings upon our President and national leaders, Governor Holden and state leaders. We ask for Your blessing on Speaker Kreider and Leader Hanaway as they continue to demonstrate leadership in our state.

And we pray for the people of this great land right now, whether they are plowing a field in Iowa, working in a factory in Louisiana, sitting in an office in Jefferson City, we ask for Your blessing upon them.

Lord, during this time of prayer, we celebrate Your blessings and remain, because of You - one nation - free. In Your holy name. Amen.

Prayer by Representative Matt Boatright.

We thank You Lord Jesus for life today. We thank You for a National Day of Prayer, we thank You for the privilege to live in a free land, we thank You for the privilege to pray, we thank You for Your Word which doesn't change. These are all gifts from You, and we thank You.

Lord we ask You to give us wisdom and discernment to know right from wrong. We lift up the leaders of this place and our nation. We ask for Your continued guidance and protection. Lord, we ask for ourselves, Your forgiveness for the many ways that we disappoint You with our sins.

Lord, we ask for each man, woman and child in this great state and country to heed the advice in Proverbs 3:5-6: Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight.

Lord this is our prayer today. Amen.

The House joined in a moment of silent prayer.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1248, Pages 27-30, Section 144.190, by deleting all of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“144.190. 1. If a tax has been incorrectly computed by reason of a clerical error or mistake on the part of the director of revenue, such fact shall be set forth in the records of the director of revenue, and the amount of the overpayment shall be credited on any taxes then due from the person legally obligated to remit the tax pursuant to sections 144.010 to 144.525, and the balance shall be refunded to the person legally obligated to remit the tax, such person's administrators or executors, as provided for in section 144.200.

2. If any tax, penalty or interest has been paid more than once, or has been erroneously or illegally collected, or has been erroneously or illegally computed, such sum shall be credited on any taxes then due from the person legally obligated to remit the tax pursuant to sections 144.010 to 144.510, and the balance, with interest as determined by section 32.065, RSMo, shall be refunded to the person legally obligated to remit the tax, but no such credit or refund shall be allowed unless duplicate copies of a claim for refund are filed within three years from date of overpayment.

3. Every claim for refund must be in writing and signed by the applicant, and must state the specific grounds upon which the claim is founded. Any refund or any portion thereof which is erroneously made, and any credit or any portion thereof which is erroneously allowed, may be recovered in any action brought by the director of revenue against the person legally obligated to remit the tax. In the event that a tax has been illegally imposed against a person legally obligated to remit the tax, the director of revenue shall authorize the cancellation of the tax upon the director's record.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the director of revenue shall authorize direct-pay agreements to purchasers which have annual purchases in excess of seven hundred fifty thousand dollars pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the director of revenue. For the purposes of such direct-pay agreements, the taxes authorized pursuant to chapters 66, 67, 92 and 94, RSMo, shall be remitted based upon the location of the place of business of the purchaser.

5. For all refund claims submitted to the department of revenue on or after September 1, 2002, notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, if a person legally obligated to remit the tax levied pursuant to sections 144.010 to 144.525 has received a refund of such taxes for a specific issue and submits a subsequent claim for refund of such taxes on the same issue for a tax period beginning on or after the date of the original refund check issued to such person, no refund shall be allowed and a rebuttable presumption shall exist that such person has willfully and knowingly overcharged or overcollected such taxes with intent to make claim to any such overcharged or overcollected amount for the purposes of subsection 1 of section 144.157. This subsection shall not apply if an additional refund claim is filed due to any of the following:

- (1) receipt of additional information or an exemption certificate from the purchaser of the item at issue;
- (2) a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction or the administrative hearing commission; or,
- (3) changes in regulation or policy by the department of revenue.

6. Any taxpayer in the state of Missouri may sue the state on behalf of a class of all taxpayers for refunds of sales taxes which have been incorrectly or illegally collected in the same manner as is permitted under article X, sections 18(e)(5) and 23 of the Constitution of Missouri”.

Representative Smith requested a division of the question on House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

PART I

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1248, Pages 27-30, Section 144.190, by deleting all of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“144.190. 1. If a tax has been incorrectly computed by reason of a clerical error or mistake on the part of the director of revenue, such fact shall be set forth in the records of the director of revenue, and the amount of the overpayment shall be credited on any taxes then due from the person legally obligated to remit the tax pursuant to sections 144.010 to 144.525, and the balance shall be refunded to the person legally obligated to remit the tax, such person's administrators or executors, as provided for in section 144.200.

2. If any tax, penalty or interest has been paid more than once, or has been erroneously or illegally collected, or has been erroneously or illegally computed, such sum shall be credited on any taxes then due from the person legally obligated to remit the tax pursuant to sections 144.010 to 144.510, and the balance, with interest as determined by section 32.065, RSMo, shall be refunded to the person legally obligated to remit the tax, but no such credit or refund shall be allowed unless duplicate copies of a claim for refund are filed within three years from date of overpayment.
