

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 91st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-FIFTH DAY, MONDAY, MAY 6, 2002

Speaker Pro Tem Abel in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

God, the goal seems both near and remote today, the way there stony. In the waning days of this session, in order that alarm not set in, we take the first step and put ourselves in Your hands. With you in our heart, on our lips, and close at our side, we take up the challenge. Our purpose attends on the people of this state, whom You love so well. We cannot lose.

In conflict, let it be You who brings convergence. In contradiction and foment, we claim Your still point of silent centeredness. In exhaustion and agitation, let Your suppleness and flexibility fuel us. Our representatives have a dwindling number of days left them. Help them, that today be for Missouri's benefit and advance. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Andrew Cribbin and Joseph Cribbin.

The Journal of the sixty-third day was approved as corrected.

The Journal of the sixty-fourth day was approved as printed.

Representative Crump suggested the absence of a quorum.

House Amendment No. 2

AMEND House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 895 by inserting in the appropriate location the following section:

"454.507. 1. In addition to the authority of the division to request information pursuant to section 454.440, the division may request information from financial institutions pursuant to this section.

2. As used in this section:

(1) "Account" includes a demand deposit, checking or negotiable withdrawal order account, savings account, time deposit account or money market mutual fund account;

(2) "Encumbered assets", the noncustodial parent's interest in an account which is encumbered by a lien arising by operation of law or otherwise;

(3) "Financial institution" includes:

(a) A depository institution as defined in section 3(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. section 1813(c));

(b) An institution affiliated party as defined in section 3(u) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. section 1813(u));

(c) Any federal credit union or state credit union, as defined in section 101 of the Federal Credit Union Act (12 U.S.C. section 1752), including an institution affiliated party of such a credit union as defined in section 206(r) of the Federal Credit Union Act (12 U.S.C. section 1786(r)); or

(d) Any benefit association, insurance company, safe deposit company, money market fund or similar entity authorized to do business in the state.

3. The division shall enter into agreements with financial institutions to develop and operate a data match system which uses automated exchanges to the maximum extent feasible. Such agreements shall require the financial institution, to provide to the division, for each calendar quarter, the name, record address, Social Security number or other taxpayer identification number, and other identifying information of each noncustodial parent who maintains an account at such institution and who owes past due support, as identified by the division by name and Social Security number or other taxpayer identification number. The financial institution shall only provide such information stated in this subsection that is readily available through existing data systems, and as such data systems are enhanced, solely at the financial institution's discretion and for its business purposes, the financial institution shall provide any original and additional information which becomes readily available for any new data match request.

4. The division shall pay a reasonable fee to the financial institution for conducting the data match pursuant to this section, but such amount shall not exceed the costs incurred by the financial institution.

5. The division [of] or a IV-D agency may issue liens against any account in a financial institution and may release such liens.

6. (1) If a notice of lien is received from the division or a IV-D agency, the financial institutions shall immediately encumber the assets held by such institution on behalf of any noncustodial parent who is subject to such lien. However, if the account is in the name of a noncustodial parent and such parent's spouse or parent, the financial institution at its discretion may not encumber the assets and when it elects not to encumber such assets, shall so notify the division or IV-D agency. The amount of assets to be encumbered shall be stated in the notice and shall not exceed the amount of unpaid support due at the time of issuance. [The financial institution shall, within five business days of receipt of such notice, mail a copy of the notice of lien to the noncustodial parent and any other person named on the account at the address shown in the records of the financial institution.] The financial institution shall, within five business days of receipt of a notice of lien, notify the division or IV-D agency of the financial institution's response to the notice of lien.

(2) Within five business days of notification by the financial institution that assets have been encumbered, the division or IV-D agency shall notify by mail the noncustodial parent of the issuance of the lien and the reasons for such issuance. The notice shall advise the noncustodial parent of the procedures to contest such lien pursuant to section 454.475 by requesting a hearing within thirty days from the date the notice was mailed by the division to the noncustodial parent.

7. (1) Except as provided in subsection 6 of this section, the interest of the noncustodial parent shall be presumed equal to all other joint owners, unless at least one of the joint owners provides the division or IV-D agency with a true copy of a written agreement entered prior to the date of issuance of notice of lien, or other clear and convincing evidence regarding the various ownership interests of the joint owners within twenty days of the financial institution's mailing of the notice of lien. The financial institution shall only encumber the amount presumed to belong to the noncustodial parent. The division or IV-D agency may proceed to issue an order for the amount in the account presumed to belong to the noncustodial parent if no prior written agreement or other evidence is provided.

(2) If a prior written agreement or other clear and convincing evidence is furnished to the division, and based on such agreement or evidence the division or IV-D agency determines that the interest of the noncustodial parent is less than the presumed amount, the division or IV-D agency shall amend the lien to reflect the amount in the account belonging to the noncustodial parent or shall release the lien if the noncustodial parent has no interest in the account. In no event shall the division or IV-D agency obtain more than the presumed amount of the account without a judicial determination that a greater amount of the account belongs to the noncustodial parent. The division or IV-D agency may by levy and execution on a judgment in a court of competent jurisdiction seek to obtain an amount greater than the amount presumed to belong to the noncustodial parent upon proof that the noncustodial parent's interest is greater than the amount presumed pursuant to this subsection.

(3) For purposes of this subsection, accounts are not joint accounts when the noncustodial parent has no legal right to the funds, but is either a contingent owner or agent. Such nonjoint accounts shall include, but are not limited to, a pay-on-death account or any other account in which the noncustodial parent owner may act as agent by a power of attorney or otherwise. Furthermore, when any account naming the noncustodial parent has not been disclosed to the noncustodial parent which is evidenced by a signature card or other deposit agreement not containing the signature of such noncustodial parent, then for the purposes of this subsection, such account shall not be treated as a joint account.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a financial institution shall not encumber any account of less than one hundred dollars.

8. Upon service of an order to surrender issued pursuant to this section, any financial institution in possession of a jointly owned account may interplead such property as otherwise provided by law.

9. Any other joint owner may petition a court of competent jurisdiction for a determination that the interests of the joint owners are disproportionate. The party filing the petition shall have the burden of proof on such a claim. If subject to the jurisdiction of the court, all persons owning affected accounts with a noncustodial parent shall be made parties to any proceeding to determine the respective interests of the joint owners. The court shall enter an appropriate order determining the various interests of each of the joint owners and authorizing payment against the obligor's share for satisfaction of the child support or maintenance obligation.

10. The court may assess costs and reasonable attorney's fees against the noncustodial parent if the court determines that the noncustodial parent has an interest in the affected joint account.

11. The division may order the financial institution to surrender all or part of the encumbered assets. The order shall not issue until sixty days after the notice of lien is sent to the financial institution. The financial institution shall, within seven days of receipt of the order, pay the encumbered amount as directed in the order to surrender. If the noncustodial parent contests a lien pursuant to subdivision (2) of subsection 6 of this section and a hearing is pending, the bank shall retain the surrendered funds in escrow pending the hearing determination.

12. A financial institution shall not be liable pursuant to any state or federal law, including 42 U.S.C. section 669A, to any person for:

- (1) Any disclosure of information to the division pursuant to this section;
- (2) Encumbering or surrendering any assets held by the financial institution in response to a lien or order pursuant to this section and notwithstanding any other provisions in this section to the contrary, encumbering or surrendering assets from any account in the financial institution connected in any way to the noncustodial parent; or
- (3) Any other action taken in good faith to comply with the requirements of this section.

13. A financial institution that fails without due cause to comply with a notice of lien or order to surrender issued pursuant to this section shall be liable for the amount of the encumbered assets and the division may bring an action against the financial institution in circuit court for such amount. For purposes of this subsection, "due cause" shall include, but not be limited to, when a financial institution demonstrates to a court of competent jurisdiction that the institution established in good faith a routine to comply with the requirements of this section and that one or more transactions to enforce the lien or order to surrender were not completed due to an accidental error, a misplaced computer entry, or other accidental human or mechanical problems."; and

Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Johnson (90), House Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

On motion of Representative Liese, HS HCS SB 895, as amended, was adopted.
