38 7. The result of each examination shall be certified by the director or the examiner upon 39 the records of the corporation examined and the result of all examinations during the biennial 41 development to the legislature.

42 8. The director may contract with regulators in other states to provide for the 43 examination of Missouri branches of out-of-state banks and branches of banks whose home state 44 is Missouri. The agreements may provide for the payment by the home state of the cost of 45 examinations conducted by the host state at the request of the home state regulators.

361.170. 1. The expense of every regular and every special examination, together with 2 the expense of administering the banking laws, including salaries, travel expenses, supplies and

4 furnished by the state, shall be paid by the banks and trust companies of the state, and for this 5 purpose the director shall, prior to the beginning of each fiscal year, make an estimate of the 6 expenses to be incurred by the division during such fiscal year. To this, there shall be added an 8 supporting services such as the costs related to the division's services from the state auditor and 9 attorney general and an amount sufficient to cover the cost of fringe benefits furnished by the 14 consideration their total assets, as reflected in the last preceding report called for by the director 15 pursuant to the provisions of section 361.130 or from information obtained pursuant to 16 subsection 3 of section 361.130 and, for trust companies which do not take deposits or make 17 loans, the volume of their trust business, and the relative cost, in salaries and expenses, of 18 examining banks and trust companies of various size and this calculation shall result in an

20 division of finance incurred with respect to such bank or trust company. A statement of such 21 assessment shall be sent by the director to each bank and trust company on or before July first.
22 One-half of the amount so assessed to each bank or trust company shall be paid by it to the state
23 director of the department of revenue on or before July fifteenth, and the remainder shall be paid 24 on or before January fifteenth of the next year.

25 2. Any expenses incurred or services performed on account of any bank, trust company 26 or other corporation subject to the provisions of this chapter, outside of the normal expense of 27 any annual or special examination, shall be charged to and paid by the corporation for whom they 28 were incurred or performed.

29 3. The state treasurer shall credit such payments to a special fund to be known as the 30 "Division of Finance Fund", which is hereby created and which shall be devoted solely to the 31 payment of expenditures actually incurred by the division and attributable to the regulation of 32 banks, trust companies, and other corporations subject to the jurisdiction of the division. Any 33 amount, other than the fifteen percent for supporting services and the amount of fringe benefits 34 described in subsection 1 of this section, remaining in such fund at the end of any fiscal year up 35 to five percent of the amount assessed to the banks and trust companies pursuant to subsection 36 1 of this section shall not be transferred and placed to the credit of the general revenue fund as 37 provided in section 33.080, RSMo, but shall be applicable by appropriation of the general 38 assembly to the payment of such expenditures of the division in the succeeding fiscal year and 39 shall be applied by the division to the reduction of the amount to be assessed to banks and trust 40 companies in such succeeding fiscal year; provided the fifteen percent for supporting services 41 and the amount of fringe benefits described in subsection 1 of this section and any amount 42 remaining in the division of finance fund at the end of the fiscal year which exceeds five percent

48 requests it, the newspaper publication provisions of this section shall not be enforced against 49 such bank or trust company.

362.910. As used in sections 362.910 to 362.940, [except for section 362.925,] unless 2 the context clearly indicates otherwise, the following terms mean:

3 (1) "Bank", any bank, trust company or national banking association which accepts 4 demand deposits and makes loans, and which has its principal banking house in Missouri and 5 a branch of any bank, trust company or national banking association which accepts demand 6 deposits and which has a physical presence in Missouri, other than a branch located outside of 7 Missouri;

8 (2) "Bank holding company", any company which has control over any bank or over any 9 company that is a bank holding company;

10 (3) "Company", any corporation, partnership, business trust, association, or similar 11 organization, or any other trust unless by its terms it must terminate within twenty-five years or 12 not later than twenty-one years and ten months after the death of individuals living on the 13 effective date of the trust, but shall not include any corporation the majority of the shares of 14 which are owned by the United States or by any state;

15 (4) "Control", a company has control over a bank, trust company or company if:

16 (a) The company directly or indirectly or acting through one or more other persons owns, 17 controls, or has power to vote twenty-five percent or more of any class of voting securities of the 18 bank or company;

19 (b) The company controls in any manner the election of a majority of the directors or 20 trustees of the bank or company; or

21 (c) The company directly or indirectly exercises a controlling influence over the 22 management or policies of the bank or company;

23 (d) Provided, however, no company shall be deemed to have control over a bank or a 24 company by virtue of its ownership or control of shares acquired by it in connection with its 25 underwriting of securities and which are held only for such period of time as will permit the sale 26 thereof upon a reasonable basis, or which is formed for the sole purpose of participating in a 27 proxy solicitation, or which acquires ownership or control of shares in securing or collecting a 28 debt previously contracted in good faith, until two years after the date of acquisition, or which 29 acquires ownership or control of shares in a fiduciary capacity. For the purpose of sections 30 362.910 to 362.940, bank shares shall not be deemed to have been acquired in a fiduciary 31 capacity if the acquiring bank or company in its capacity as trustee of a trust has sole 32 discretionary authority to exercise voting rights with reference thereto; except that this limitation 33 is applicable in the case of a bank or company which acquired such shares prior to December 31, 34 1970, only if the bank or company had the right consistent with its obligations under the 35 instrument, agreement, or other arrangement establishing the trust relationship to divest itself of 36 such voting rights and failed to exercise that right to divest prior to December 31, 1971;

37 (5) "Director" or "director of finance", the director of the division of finance of the 38 department of economic development;

39 (6) "Trust holding company", any company which has control over any trust 40 company or over any company that is a trust holding company.

362.923. 1. The director of the division of finance may enter into cooperative and 2 reciprocal agreements with the federal reserve banks for periodic examination of bank holding 3 companies on a joint or alternating basis, but, except in extraordinary situations, no such 4 agreements may be concluded which would result in a bank holding company being examined 5 more frequently than once every twelve months. The director may accept reports of examination 6 and other exchanges of information from such agencies in lieu of conducting his own 7 examinations and compiling his own reports, and may provide reports of examination and other 8 information to such agencies.

9 2. A trust holding company or a company formed to be a trust holding company, 10 as hereinafter described, is a new business entity under Missouri law and is not subject to 11 federal reserve examination. The director of the division of finance shall contract with the 12 parties that charter such entity to obtain safety and soundness authority as a condition for 13 such entity's acquisition of a trust company. To simplify such process:

14 (1) A trust holding company or a company formed to be a trust holding company
15 which seeks to acquire control of any nondepository trust company shall file an application 16 with the division of finance;

17 (2) The director shall determine if the proposed acquisition of a nondepository trust

18 company by a trust holding company is consistent with the interests of promoting and 19 maintaining sound trust companies;

20 (3) The director may issue an order approving or disapproving the proposed 21 acquisition of a nondepository trust company by a trust holding company and may present, 22 enforce, advocate, or defend the order in any judicial or administrative proceeding; and 23 (4) The director may examine and investigate any trust holding company as 24 appropriate or necessary to carry out the director's duties. The director may enter into 25 cooperative and reciprocal agreements with federal and state regulatory authorities 26 appropriate to such functions and may share reports and information or pursue joint 27 actions or concurrent jurisdiction with federal and state regulatory authorities.

369.159. [An association may make a service charge on accounts subject to such 2 conditions or requirements as may be fixed by regulations of the director of the division of 3 finance. No limitation shall be placed upon service charges on NOW accounts.] An association 4 may impose fees or service charges on accounts; however, such fees or service charges are 5 subject to such conditions or requirements that may be fixed by regulations pursuant to 6 section 369.301 by the director of the division of finance and the state savings and loan 7 commission. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, no such condition or requirement 8 shall be more restrictive than the fees or service charges on deposit accounts or similar 9 accounts permitted any federally chartered depository institution.

370.171. A credit union may impose fees or service charges on deposit accounts or 2 similar accounts; however, such fees or service charges are subject to such conditions or 3 requirements that may be fixed by regulations pursuant to this chapter by the director of 4 credit union supervision and the credit union commission. Notwithstanding any law to the 5 contrary, no such condition or requirement shall be more restrictive than the fees or 6 service charges on deposit accounts or similar accounts permitted any federally chartered 7 depository institution.

400.1-103. Unless displaced by the particular provisions of this chapter, the principles 2 of law and equity, including the law merchant and the law relative to capacity to contract, 3 principal and agent, estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, 4 or other validating or invalidating cause shall supplement its provisions. Any transaction or 5 series of transactions that complies with articles 3, 4, and 9 of this chapter shall not be 6 subject to claims other than statutory provisions that are specifically provided for in this 7 chapter.

400.3-102. (a) This Article applies to negotiable instruments. It does not apply to 2 money, to payment orders governed by Article 4A, or to securities governed by Article 8.

3 (b) If there is conflict between this Article and Article 4 or 9, Articles 4 and 9 govern;

4 however, as between Article 4 and this Article, the more specific provision governs.

5 (c) Regulations of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and operating 6 circulars of the Federal Reserve Banks supersede any inconsistent provision of this Article to the 7 extent of the inconsistency.

400.4-102. (a) To the extent that items within this article are also within articles 3 and 2 8, they are subject to those articles. If there is conflict, this article governs article 3, but article 3 8 governs this article.

4 (b) The liability of a bank for action or nonaction with respect to an item handled by it 5 for purposes of presentment, payment or collection is governed by the law of the place where the 6 bank is located. In the case of action or nonaction by or at a branch or separate office of a bank, 7 its liability is governed by the law of the place where the branch or separate office is located.

8 (c) Any transaction or series of transactions that complies with this article shall not 9 be subject to common law claims provided the bank has acted in good faith for the benefit
10 of such bank's customers. This change is added specifically to resolve the issues created 11 in Cassello v. Allegiant Bank, 288 F.3rd 339, (8th Cir. 2002).

400.9-626. [(a)] In an action arising from a transaction, [other than a consumer 2 transaction,] in which the amount of a deficiency or surplus is in issue, the following rules apply:

3 (1) A secured party need not prove compliance with the provisions of this part relating 4 to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance unless the debtor or a secondary obligor 5 places the secured party's compliance in issue.

6 (2) If the secured party's compliance is placed in issue, the secured party has the burden 7 of establishing that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance was conducted in 8 accordance with this part.

9 (3) Except as otherwise provided in section 400.9-628, if a secured party fails to prove 10 that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance was conducted in accordance with 11 the provisions of this part relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance, the 12 liability of a debtor or a secondary obligor for a deficiency is limited to an amount by which the 13 sum of the secured obligation, expenses, and attorney's fees exceeds the greater of:

14 (A) The proceeds of the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance; or 15 (B) The amount of proceeds that would have been realized had the noncomplying 16 secured party proceeded in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to collection, 17 enforcement, disposition, or acceptance.

18 (4) For purposes of paragraph (3)(B), the amount of proceeds that would have been 19 realized is equal to the sum of the secured obligation, expenses, and attorney's fees unless the 20 secured party proves that the amount is less than that sum.

21 (5) If a deficiency or surplus is calculated under section 400.9-615(f), the debtor or 22 obligor has the burden of establishing that the amount of proceeds of the disposition is 23 significantly below the range of prices that a complying disposition to a person other than the 24 secured party, a person related to the secured party, or a secondary obligor would have brought.

25 [(b) The limitation of the rules in subsection (a) to transactions other than consumer 26 transactions is intended to leave to the court the determination of the proper rules in consumer 27 transactions. The court may not infer from that limitation the nature of the proper rule in 28 consumer transactions and may continue to apply established approaches.

29 (c) This section shall apply on and after January 1, 2003.]

408.455. All contracts or agreements originally subject to [section] sections 408.450 2 to 408.470 shall also be subject to the provisions of sections 408.140, 408.150, 408.160 and 3 408.550 to 408.562, until the extension of credit is paid off or the debtor requests an 4 extension or refinancing. At such time the debtor requests an extension of the current 5 credit, the creditor may convert the extension of credit to any loan contract or times sales 6 agreement such creditor is permitted to offer on the terms and conditions permitted in 7 those extensions of credit, provided the provisions of sections 408.140, 408.150, 408.160 and 8 408.550 to 408.562 shall still apply.

443.130. 1. If any such person, thus receiving satisfaction, does not, within fifteen 2 business days after request and tender of costs, deliver to the person making satisfaction a 3 sufficient deed of release, such person shall forfeit to the party aggrieved ten percent upon the 4 amount of the security instrument, absolutely, and any other damages such person may be able 5 to prove such person has sustained, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction. A 6 business day is any day except Saturday, Sunday and legal holidays.

7 2. To qualify under this section, the mortgagor shall provide the request in the form of 8 a demand letter to the mortgagee, cestui qui trust, or assignee by certified mail, return receipt 9 requested. The letter shall include good and sufficient evidence that the debt secured by the deed 10 of trust was satisfied with good funds, and the expense of filing and recording the release was 11 advanced.

12 3. In any action against such person who fails to release the lien as provided in 13 subsection 1 of this section, the plaintiff, or his attorney, shall prove at trial that the plaintiff 14 notified the holder of the note by certified mail, return receipt requested.

15 4. The provisions of this section shall be construed as provided in Lines v.
16 Mercantile Bank, 70 S.W.3d 676 (Mo.App.S.D. 2002).

[408.450. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, the parties to 2 any written contract may agree to and stipulate for any rate per annum of interest time 3 charge or time price differential not in excess of twenty-four percent per annum that 4 does not exceed for any calendar period, as set forth in subsections 2 and 3 of this 5 section, the average auction rate quoted on a nominal discount basis by the Federal

6 Reserve Board for twenty-six-week treasury bills for the preceding auction, 7 multiplied by two; however, if the preceding auction shall fall on the last day of the 8 preceding month, then the rate shall be determined by the next preceding auction.

9 2. All open-end accounts shall fluctuate no more often than monthly and no 10 less often than quarterly.

11 3. All closed-end accounts shall fluctuate no more often than quarterly and 12 no less than annually; and only one formula and one index shall be used to determine 13 the rate or time price differential for any one closed-end account.

14 4. This section shall not apply to open-end credit under which a credit card 15 has been issued or any extension of credit made pursuant to sections 408.250 to 16 408.370.

17 5. Interest or time price differential on contracts subject to sections 408.450 18 to 408.467 shall be computed on a simple interest basis.

19 6. There shall be no prepayment penalty on any contract subject to sections 20 408.450 to 408.467.

21 7. No creditor shall refuse credit to a person solely because of his refusal to 22 accept the provisions of sections 408.450 to 408.467.

23 8. The amount of regular, periodic payments on closed-end accounts shall not 24 be changed, but the total number of payments due may be increased or decreased as 25 a result of changes in the rate.]

2 [408.460. 1. If an open-end contract provides for or is amended to provide 3 for, pursuant to section 408.450, a variable rate or amount according to any index, 4 formula or provision of law disclosed to the obligor, the applicable rate ceiling is the 5 ceiling as disclosed to the obligor. The monthly or quarterly ceiling shall be adjusted 6 in accordance with and limited by section 408.450.

7 2. In any open-end account, the creditor may provide in the agreement 8 covering the open-end account, or may amend the agreement to provide that the 9 terms, including the formula used to determine the rate on the open-end account, will 10 be subject to revision as to current and future balances, from time to time, by notice 11 from the creditor to the obligor. Any creditor revising an open-end account pursuant 12 to sections 408.450 to 408.467 shall disclose in the notice:

13 (1) The new formula to be used in computing the rate;

14 (2) The date on which the new rate formula will become effective;

15 (3) Whether the rate shall change monthly or quarterly and whether or not it 16 will affect current as well as future balances;

17 (4) The obligor's rights under this section and the procedures for the obligor 18 to exercise those rights;

19 (5) The address to which the obligor may send notification of the obligor's 20 election not to continue the open-end account. If the amendment increases the rate, 21 the notice shall contain the following printed in not less than 10-point bold-face type 22 or equivalent: "YOU MAY TERMINATE THIS ACCOUNT IF YOU DO NOT 23 WISH TO PAY THE NEW RATE."

3. With a notice required by subsection 2 of this section, the creditor shall include a form which may be returned at the expense of the creditor and on which the obligor may indicate his decision to terminate the account by checking or marking an appropriate box, or similar arrangement. The form may be included on a portion of the account statement to be returned to the creditor or on a separate sheet. Any obligor who is mailed a notice required by subsection 2 of this section, addressed to the obligor's last known address as shown by the creditor's records, is considered to have agreed to the revision if the obligor, or a person authorized by the obligor, after the expiration of five days after the notice is mailed, accepts or uses any extensions of credit or if the obligor elects to retain the privilege of using the open-end account. Such an election is considered to have occurred unless the obligor notifies the creditor in writing before the twenty-first day after the date on which the notice is sent that the obligor does not wish to continue the open-end account. The parties may also amend the contract by any other means permitted by any applicable law. Any obligor who rejects a rate change in accordance with this section has the right to pay off the then existing balance on the open-end account at the rate, and over the time period, in effect prior to the change, and at the same minimum payment terms previously agreed to, unless the obligor agrees to the new rates in accordance with this section. Rejection of the new rates may constitute termination of the account at the lender's option; however, the lender may not, in absence of an existing delinquency, accelerate the balance due.]

[408.465. 1. If the furnishing of any of the information required to compute the ceiling is discontinued so that it is no longer available to the lender from the Federal Reserve Board on a timely basis, the lender shall obtain that information from reliable sources satisfactory to the commissioner of finance.

2. If the information required to compute a ceiling is not available, then that ceiling remains at the level at which it was when the information became available until the information again becomes available.]

[408.467. The maximum rate on any contract to renew or extend the terms of payment of any indebtedness made pursuant to sections 408.450 to 408.465 is the applicable ceiling allowed by sections 408.450 to 408.465 for a contract entered at the time the renewal or extension is made or agreed to.]

[408.470. Sections 408.450 to 408.467 shall not apply to any loans or time price sales on which the rate of interest or time price differential charged is lawful without regard to the rates permitted in section 408.450.]

[408.557. When a lender sells or otherwise disposes of collateral in a transaction in which an action for a deficiency may be commenced against the borrower, prior to bringing any such action or upon written request of the borrower, the lender shall give the borrower the notice provided in section 400.9-614, RSMo, for consumer goods transactions or section 400.9-613, RSMo, for all other transactions that are not consumer goods transactions.]

[408.653. 1. A depository institution including any state or federally chartered bank, credit union, savings and loan association or any similar institution may charge no more than fifteen dollars as an overdraft charge or as a charge for a 4 check, draft or similar sight order returned for insufficient or uncollected funds.

5 2. Any person to whom a check, draft, order or like instrument is tendered 6 may, if such instrument is dishonored or returned unpaid for any reason, charge and 7 collect from the maker or drawer, or the person for whose benefit such instrument 8 was given, the amount of twenty dollars plus an amount equal to the actual charge 9 by the depository institution for the return of each unpaid or dishonored instrument.
10 No such charge will be considered interest, finance charge, time price differential or 11 anything of a similar nature for purposes of any statute in this state.]

2 [408.654. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, a 3 depository institution, including any state or federally chartered bank, credit union, 4 savings and loan association or similar institution, may charge up to twenty dollars 5 as an overdraft charge when the check, draft or similar sight order is presented for the 6 first time to the depository institution and the depository institution pays such check, 7 draft or similar sight order upon presentation or up to fifteen dollars as a charge for 8 a check, draft or similar sight order returned because the customer has insufficient or uncollected funds in the customer's depository institution account.]
