

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 10, 2003

Representative Fares in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Leon Riddle.

Dear Heavenly Father, we indeed live in a world that tries men's souls, patience, and faith. Frightening terrorism, vitriolic conflict between nations, economic uncertainty, and deep conflicting opinions among our own people have created fear, panic, and paralysis within our nation.

Possibly not in decades have elected men and women come to this place to make decisions facing the seemingly impossible task of bringing some degree of order out of chaos, hope out of uncertainty, and agreement out of division so that the people of our state may experience a sense of optimism and security.

But to accomplish these things, these representatives must have a wisdom greater than their own. They need an anointment from above. You, Father, and You alone possess all wisdom. You know tomorrow and every tomorrow until the end of time as well as You know today. You know the solution to every problem even before we are confronted by that problem. I pray, therefore, that You will impart to every member of this House of Representatives a portion of divine wisdom so that they may act for our greater good and their satisfaction.

In addition, I pray that You will give them the courage to listen openly to all arguments and then to arrive at their own personal conclusions, and on the basis of their convictions act, even if it means being in the minority of the few or even the minority of one.

Speaking for the people of our state, I express our gratitude to You and these assembled here for their willingness to sacrifice their energy and time--time away from family, jobs, and communities--to serve in this House as representatives of the citizens of Missouri.

In Christ's name I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the thirty-third day was approved as printed.
