

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-SEVENTH DAY, THURSDAY, MAY 8, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Father David Buescher.

Caring God, the rains may come, the hail may fall, the winds may blow, but this legislative session is inevitably coming to its conclusion. As difficult as it may be amid the words and work of this day's drive of legislation, help these men and women hold in mind and heart those for whom they labor.

The people of Missouri count on the energy, the wisdom, and the integrity of these representatives. We pray that they may continue to attend to their own good common sense and their consciences. Politics is a good and necessary factor in this room, but people are the ones helped and harmed.

Let all here bear in mind their own constituents, all the people of this state, and the principles of straightforward democracy in their many judgments which effect us all. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the sixty-sixth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

Devine, Director of the Truman Presidential Museum and Library, and all of his staff for the important role they have played in helping to make this historic event such a tremendous success; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation during "Give 'Em Hell, Harry" Day at the state capitol.

ESCORT COMMITTEE

The Speaker appointed the following committee to escort His Excellency Governor Bob Holden to the dais: Representatives Cooper (120), Brown, Deeken, Cunningham (145), Salva, LeVota, Dougherty and Jones.

The Doorkeeper announced the approach of the Honorable Bob Holden, Governor of the State of Missouri. The Governor was duly escorted to the House Chamber and the Speaker's dais, where he delivered the following message to the assembly.

TRUMAN'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

Madam Speaker, Members of the House, and President Truman:

I want to thank the Harry S Truman Presidential Museum and Library and especially its Director, Michael Devine, and Representatives Ray Salva and Russ Carnahan for planning this event.

It is a great privilege to have this opportunity to honor on his birthday a great president and a great Missourian – Harry Truman.

You know that in his later years, birthday celebrations were not Truman's favorite subject. When they planned a big Diamond Jubilee Celebration in honor of this 75th birthday at the Waldorf Astoria, he was asked what he thought about it and he said: "I'm against it." That would not be surprising for anyone who knew the energetic but unpretentious man.

One has the impression that the hoopla associated with such an event as well as the physical limitations that came with aging were an annoying distraction. Truman once said: "It is remarkable indeed how times flies and makes you an old man whether you want to be or not."

It is that level of honesty and humanity that makes Harry Truman a hero to so many. For those of us in Missouri, it is an appropriate time to remember Harry Truman. As leaders of our state, we face many of the challenges he faced.

Even though he faced tough economic times, he did not shy away from responsibility or leadership. He offered the American people straight talk and a plan for the future. His plan proposed reforms and some tough medicine, but it did not sacrifice the future.

Regardless of party affiliation, I believe that all who have been elected to public office by Missouri citizens share an affinity with Truman. I don't know about you, but I find myself from time to time leafing through the David McCullough book, or the Merle Miller book, for a few minutes of inspiration and good old Missouri common sense.

Truman accomplished a great deal as president. Domestically, he established the federal Commission on Civil Rights and brought about the desegregation of our military. He created the first federal housing policy and expanded Social Security and its benefits. He was responsible for the development of the community college and fought for funding for research universities.

On the foreign policy side, he helped bring about the ending of World War II and established the Marshall Plan to supply the aid to rebuild war torn Europe. And he initiated the Truman Doctrine, which set the American diplomatic policy for the next forty years of supporting free people who are fighting off outside forces.

Truman certainly did not have the aspirations of ever being President. But as Vice President, the heavy responsibilities of the job fell on him when President Franklin Roosevelt died in office. He admitted to being scared and said he "felt like the moon, the stars, and all the planets had fallen" on him. And perhaps that is why we are so inspired by Truman. He was honest, humble, and straight talking. What most of us would call just a regular guy. He played the piano and he played poker. He sometimes drank whiskey and sometimes used colorful language. He was short and wore thick glasses.

But this ordinary man elevated by unique circumstances became an extraordinary president...one of the most admired and respected in history, even though people did not realize at the time what a great place in history he would hold. In fact, many of the decisions Truman made were politically unpopular in his day.

But Truman obviously was driven by a higher calling. He said what he thought and always stood up for what he believed to be right...no matter which way the political winds were blowing. He was willing to make political sacrifices to secure a better future for the world. We could have told them what an outstanding President Harry Truman would make.

Because we know Harry Truman came from that kind of hard working Missouri stock that gets the job done. And that's why we Missourians are extremely proud to call him our favorite son and wish him a happy birthday today.

On his 75th birthday, in an interview with a reporter, President Truman stated some personal convictions that are good advice at any time.

He said: "As for being seventy-five, I never look back. I look forward. I'm an optimist, you know. I have great faith. I've always said our problems will be solved by common sense and good will."

Not bad words for us to remember in these closing days of the legislative session. Thank you.
