

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

SIXTY-EIGHTH DAY, FRIDAY, MAY 9, 2003

Speaker Hanaway in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Betty Thompson.

I thank God for another day, a day that You and I have never seen before. But a day that will make us a little bit better. We ask the Lord to bless each legislator, our families and the people we serve. Dear God, help us to understand why we're here and that we may effectively help the people we serve.

As we vote on issues, Dear God, that effect all people, give us the courage, strength, hope, faith and right guidance. As this session nears an end, help us to be more kind and more loving toward each other. We ask at this dark hour to shower Your many blessings upon us and pray in Your name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as an Honorary Page for the Day, to serve without compensation: Will Corrigan.

The Journal of the sixty-seventh day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 17

WHEREAS, faith-based and community organizations are currently providing quality social services and making a positive difference in the communities they serve; and

WHEREAS, faith-based and community organizations are serving their communities in areas such as the prevention and treatment of juvenile delinquency, child care services, support services for the elderly, the prevention of crime, the intervention in and prevention of domestic violence, and a number of other social service areas; and

WHEREAS, some of these faith-based and community organizations are currently receiving funds from federal government, or through a state, city, or local government that itself receives federal funds, to carry out their missions; and

WHEREAS, because of the quality services provided by these organizations, it is important for the state and local governments to utilize their services by working in partnership with faith-based and community organizations; and

WHEREAS, faith-based and community organizations that currently work in partnership with local governments or judicial circuits are doing so within the framework of the Constitutional church-state guidelines:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Second General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby express their gratitude to faith-based and community organizations working in their communities to improve the lives of the citizens of this state; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we support the mission of faith-based and community organizations to provide social services to improve the lives of our citizens; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we support and encourage the state and all local governments to work in partnership with faith-based and community organizations to provide quality social services that improve the lives of so many of our citizens in particular and better our society in general; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Governor, the presiding judge of each judicial circuit in this state, and to the director of each state department.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Madam Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCR 20.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 20

WHEREAS, the national motto of the United States is "In God We Trust"; and

WHEREAS, the national motto was adopted in 1956 and is codified in the laws of the United States at Section 302 of Title 36, United States Code; and

WHEREAS, the national motto is a reference to the nation's "religious heritage" (Lynch v. Donnelly, 465 U.S. 668, 676 (1984)); and

WHEREAS, the national motto recognizes the religious beliefs and practices of the American people as an aspect of our national history and culture; and

WHEREAS, nearly every criminal law on the books can be traced to some religious principle or inspiration; and

WHEREAS, the national motto is deeply interwoven into the fabric of our civil polity; and

WHEREAS, the national motto recognizes the historical fact that our nation was believed to have been founded "under God"; and

WHEREAS, the content of the national motto is as old as the Republic itself and has always been as integral a part of the First Amendment as the very words of that charter of religious liberty; and

1722 Journal of the House

WHEREAS, the display and teaching of the national motto to public school children has a valid secular purpose, such secular purpose being to foster patriotism, symbolize the historical role of religion in our society, express confidence in the future, inculcate hope, and instruct in humility; and

WHEREAS, there is a long tradition of government acknowledgment of religion in mottos, oaths, and anthems; and

WHEREAS, the national motto serves "the legitimate secular purposes of solemnizing public occasions, expressing confidence in the future, and encouraging the recognition of what is worthy of appreciation in society" (Lynch v. Donnelly, 465 U.S. at 693 (O'Connor, J., concurring)); and

WHEREAS, the national motto reflects the sentiment that "[w]e are a religious people whose institutions presuppose a Supreme Being" (Zorach v. Clauson, 343 U.S. 306, 313 (1952)); and

WHEREAS, President George Washington, in his Farewell Address, stated, "[o]f all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, religion and morality are indispensable supports," and "[w]hatever may be conceded to the influence of refined education on minds of peculiar structure, reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle," and "let us with caution indulge the supposition that morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle"; and

WHEREAS, President John Adams wrote that "it is religion and morality alone which can establish the principles upon which freedom can securely stand"; and

WHEREAS, the role of religion in public life is an important one which deserves the public's attention; and

WHEREAS, the signers of the Declaration of Independence appealed to the Supreme Judge of the World for the rectitude of their intentions, and avowed a firm reliance of the protection of Divine Providence; and

WHEREAS, President George Washington, in his First Inaugural Address, said that "it would be peculiarly improper to omit in this first official act my fervent supplications to that Almighty Being who rules over the universe, who presides in the councils of nations, and whose providential aids can supply every human defect, that His benediction may consecrate to the liberties and happiness of the people of the United States a Government instituted by themselves for these essential purposes"; and

WHEREAS, The First Congress urged President George Washington to proclaim "a day of public thanksgiving and prayer, to be observed by acknowledging with grateful hearts the many single favors of Almighty God"; and

WHEREAS, the First Congress reenacted the Northwest Ordinance, which stated that "[r]eligion, morality, and knowledge, being necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged"; and

WHEREAS, the Declaration of Independence demonstrates this Nation was founded on transcendent values which flow from a belief in a Supreme Being; and

WHEREAS, the Founding Fathers believed devotedly that there was a God and that the unalienable rights of man were rooted in Him, is clearly evidenced in their writings, from the Mayflower Compact to the Constitution itself; and

WHEREAS, religion has been closely identified with the history and Government of the United States; and

WHEREAS, our national life reflects a religious people who earnestly pray that the Supreme Lawgiver guide them in every measure which may be worthy of His blessing; and

WHEREAS, the national motto is prominently engraved in the wall above the Speaker's dais in the Chamber of the House of Representatives, appears over the entrance to the Chamber of the Senate, and is depicted on all United States coins and currency:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Second General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby affirm the support of the Missouri Legislature for the United State's national motto "In God We Trust", and encourages the display of the national motto of the United States in public buildings throughout the state; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Missouri General Assembly affirm our support for and encourage any elected or appointed official, state employee, teacher, administrator, or local school board in any public school district of this state, to read or post in any public building, school, classroom, or at a school event any excerpts or portions of any historical document, writing, or record relating to the founding of the United States of America or the state of Missouri, or both, and any historical document, writing, or record that represents a substantial influence on national or state history, including:

- (1) The Preamble to the Missouri Constitution;
- (2) The Declaration of Independence;
- (3) The Constitution of the United States of America;
- (4) The Mayflower Compact;
- (5) The national motto;
- (6) The National Anthem;
- (7) The Pledge of Allegiance;
- (8) The writings, speeches, documents, and proclamations of the founding fathers and Presidents of the United States of America;
- (9) The writings, speeches, and documents relating to civil rights leaders of the United States of America;
- (10) The writings, speeches, and documents relating to the signers of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States of America;
- (11) The decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States of America; and
- (12) Acts of the Congress of the United States of America, including the published text of the Congressional record; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that there shall be no content-based censorship of American or Missouri history or heritage as represented in its historical documents, writings, and records based upon religious references contained within these documents, writings, and records; nor shall there be a use of such documents, writings, and records to advance or inhibit a religion or particular religious belief; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives and the members of the Missouri Congressional delegation.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Madam Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCR 21.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 21

WHEREAS, Missouri's dairy industry has dramatically changed over the past three decades; and

WHEREAS, the number of dairy farms has declined by 83% and state milk production has dropped by 35% since 1975; and

WHEREAS, neighboring states around Missouri are making tremendous advances to expand their dairy industry and have found solutions in spite of state budget shortfalls; and

WHEREAS, the Missouri Dairy Growth Council has developed a "Dairy Producers' Industry Plan" that emphasizes necessary changes for expanding Missouri's dairy industry including:

- (1) Enhancing Missouri dairy operations by providing producer education and training;
- (2) Focusing on business planning, financial bench marking, employee training and management and risk management can lead to successful dairy enterprises;
- (3) Creating a business climate that promotes growth and investment in Missouri dairies will result in the long-term health and expansion of the Missouri dairy industry;
- (4) Expanding access to capital for dairy modernization, creation, and expansion is essential to the success of the dairies in Missouri; and
- (5) Providing a strong organizational and communications infrastructure to ensure long-term success for dairy producers; and

WHEREAS, the time is right to bring back the dairy industry in Missouri and reverse the downward trends:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-Second General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby endorse the recommendations of the Missouri Dairy Growth Council; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Missouri's Department of Agriculture work in cooperation with the Missouri Dairy Growth Council to complete a five-year plan for Missouri's dairy industry including the establishment of a website for the marketing of all dairy production inputs; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED the Department of Natural Resources reach an agreement with the dairy industry on what are required and acceptable regulations for dairy and heifer growing operations; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED the Department of Economic Development receive a detailed briefing on the economic impact of Missouri dairy operations.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

Madam Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted the Conference Committee Report on SCS HCS HB 13 and has taken up and passed CCS SCS HCS HB 13.

Madam Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted the Conference Committee Report #2 on HCS HB 19, as amended, and has taken up and passed CCS#2 HCS HB 19.

Madam Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate refuses to concur in HCS SS SCS SB 298, as amended, and requests that the House recede from its position and failing to do so grant the Senate a conference thereon.

BILL CARRYING REQUEST MESSAGE

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 1086

WHEREAS, the General Assembly of the State of Missouri has a long tradition of rendering assistance to worthwhile youth activities, especially those related to governmental or citizenship projects; and

WHEREAS, the 21st Century Leadership Academy has sought to instill leadership qualities in its participants through its excellent mock legislature program; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly has maintained a policy of granting such organizations permission to use the House Chamber for the purpose of their governmental and citizenship programs:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, hereby grant the 21st Century Leadership Academy permission to use the House Chamber for the purpose of holding a mock legislative session on Wednesday, May 21, 2003, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Madam Speaker: Your Committee on Rules, to which was referred HR 495, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 495

WHEREAS, the Missouri General Assembly has a long tradition of rendering assistance to those programs aimed at developing exemplary qualities of citizenship and leadership within our youth; and

WHEREAS, the Missouri Girls State program of the American Legion Auxiliary has earned considerable recognition for its success in providing young women with a unique and valuable insight into the process of democratic government through a format of direct role-playing experience; and

WHEREAS, during June 2003, the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Missouri, is conducting the Sixty-Second annual session of Missouri Girls State; and

WHEREAS, an important highlight of this event will be a mock legislative session to be held in the House Chamber at our State Capitol where participants can gather to gain a more realistic insight into official governmental and electoral proceedings:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, hereby grant the adult leaders and participants of the Sixty-Second Session of the Missouri Girls State permission to use the House Chamber for the purpose of swearing in mock legislative officials and conducting a mock legislative session on June 24, 2003.
