

HB 72 -- Military Records

Sponsor: Luetkemeyer

This bill exempts from the Open Records Law any record of an individual's military service that has been recorded by a county recorder of deeds. The exemption lasts for 50 years from the date of the recording. The bill sets forth the individuals who may have access to the record, including the individual, certain relatives, and legal representatives. The bill also makes it a class A misdemeanor for any person to otherwise disclose the information in the recorded document.
