

HB 169 -- Lack of Consent in Restraint Crimes

Sponsor: Kelly (144)

Currently, a person is deemed incapable of consent for purposes of the elements of the crimes of kidnapping, felonious restraint, and false imprisonment if the person is less than 14 years of age. This bill raises the age under which a person is deemed incapable of consent to 17.