

HB 174 -- Employment of Retired Teachers in the Kansas City
School District

Sponsor: Bland

Currently, retired teachers in the St. Louis City school district may return to teaching for up to four years without loss of retirement benefits. This bill permits retired teachers and administrators in the Kansas City school district to be employed by the district for up to four years without loss of benefits.