

HB 307 -- MUTUAL-AID AGREEMENTS

Under current law, political subdivisions must have approval from the Governor before entering into a mutual-aid agreement with other public or private agencies for reciprocal emergency aid.

This bill removes the requirement that the Governor approve these agreements.