

HB 308 -- State Funds for Union Organizations

Sponsor: Bland

This bill prohibits private employers that receive state funds from using those funds to assist, promote, or deter union organizing and to provide sufficient records to the state to certify compliance. The bill does not prohibit any activity in connection with the administration of a collective bargaining agreement; allowing a labor organization access to facilities or property; meeting requirements of state law, federal law, or a collective bargaining agreement; or negotiating, entering, or carrying out a voluntary recognition agreement with a labor organization.
