

HB 367 -- Personal Records

Co-Sponsors: Cunningham (86), Myers

This bill prohibits any public governmental body from employing an inmate or person with a criminal record in any position having access to personal records containing unique personal identifiers.