

HB 413 -- Resisting Arrest

Co-Sponsors: Mayer, Lipke (157), Crowell, Goodman, Kelly (36),
Corcoran, Bringer, Johnson (90), Jolly

Current law makes resisting arrest a class D felony if it is done by fleeing in a manner that creates a substantial risk of serious physical injury. This bill includes within that offense resisting a detention or stop by a law enforcement officer.