

HB 500 -- Jury Service

Co-Sponsors: Lowe, Moore, Curls, Meiners

Under current law, a person is disqualified from serving as a juror if that person is unable to read, speak, and understand English. This bill modifies that restriction so that a person is disqualified from serving as a juror if that person is unable to communicate in English with or without auxiliary aids and services.