

HB 555 -- Livestock

Co-Sponsors: Shoemaker (8), Townley, Shoemyer (9), Hobbs, Munzlinger

This bill modifies the definition of "livestock" by replacing the species elk with cervids, a family of species which includes elk. Cervids must be documented as obtained from a legal source and not from the wild and will be treated and classified as livestock for purposes of the Sales Tax Law and the Missouri Livestock Marketing Law.