

HB 629 -- Child Support

Sponsor: Muckler

Current law lists specific factors that must be considered by the court in determining child support payments. This bill adds a factor to the list requiring the court to consider whether a parent, because of the death of a biological parent, has sole financial responsibility for children who are not subject to the child support order.