

HB 670 -- Driving While Intoxicated

Sponsor: Selby

This bill requires law enforcement officers to administer a chemical test to any driver who has a collision where there is a fatality or serious physical injury and the driver has already been convicted of, or pled guilty to, an intoxication-related offense. Current law allows, but does not require, the law enforcement officer to administer a chemical test.