

HB 710 -- Workers' Compensation

Co-Sponsors: Bruns, Wildberger

This bill requires the Division of Workers' Compensation to treat contagious diseases contracted by firefighters or emergency medical personnel of paid fire departments, fire districts, or ambulance districts as eligible occupational diseases if proper documentation can be furnished to the division showing that an exposure existed while in the performance of work duties.