

HB 726 -- Joint Committee on Tax Policy

Co-Sponsors: Cooper (120), Lager, Goodman, Icet, Lipke (157), Sutherland, Smith (118), Stevenson

This bill creates the Joint Committee on Tax Policy.

The committee will make a continuous study of current and proposed tax policies of the state and make recommendations to the full bodies of the respective houses. The committee may also examine state department policies and administrative practices relating to tax policy and make recommendations to the departments on their administration.

The committee will be comprised of five members each from the House of Representatives and the Senate. House members will be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives; Senate members will be appointed by the President Pro Tem of the Senate. No more than three members from each body may be members of the same political party.
