

HJR 1 -- School District Bond Elections

Sponsor: Harris (23)

This proposed constitutional amendment permits voters to approve school district bond issues with a simple majority, regardless of election date. Currently, a supermajority is required, with the size of the supermajority varying by election date.