

HJR 6 -- Term Limits

Co-Sponsors: Yates, Dusenberg, Pratt, Brown

This proposed constitutional amendment prohibits any person from being elected Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney General, or Auditor more than twice. No person who has held the office of or acted as Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney General, or Auditor, for more than two years of a term to which some other person was elected, may be elected more than once.