Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 452.310, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 452.310, to read as follows:

452.310. 1. In any proceeding commenced pursuant to this chapter, the petition, a motion to modify, a motion for a family access order and a motion for contempt shall be verified. The petition in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage shall allege that the marriage is irretrievably broken and that therefore there remains no reasonable likelihood that the marriage can be preserved. The petition in a proceeding for legal separation shall allege that the marriage is not irretrievably broken and that therefore there remains a reasonable likelihood that the marriage can be preserved.

2. The petition in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation shall set forth:

(1) The residence of each party, including the county, and the length of residence of each party in this state and in the county of residence;

(2) The date of the marriage and the place at which it is registered;

(3) The date on which the parties separated;

(4) The name, date of birth and address of each child, and the parent with whom each

15 child has primarily resided for the sixty days immediately preceding the filing of the petition for 16 dissolution of marriage or legal separation;

17 (5) Whether the wife is pregnant;

18 (6) The Social Security number of the petitioner, respondent and each child;

19 (7) Any arrangements as to the custody and support of the children and the maintenance
20 of each party; and

21 (8) The relief sought.

22 3. Upon the filing of the petition in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal 23 separation, each child shall immediately be subject to the jurisdiction of the court in which the 24 proceeding is commenced, unless a proceeding involving allegations of abuse or neglect of the 25 child is pending in juvenile court. Until permitted by order of the court, neither parent shall 26 remove any child from the jurisdiction of the court or from any parent with whom the child has
27 primarily resided for the sixty days immediately preceding the filing of a petition for dissolution
28 of marriage or legal separation.

29 4. The mere fact that one parent has actual possession of the child at the time of filing
30 shall not create a preference in favor of such parent in any judicial determination regarding 31 custody of the child.

32 5. The respondent shall be served in the manner provided by the rules of the supreme
33 court and applicable court rules and, to avoid an interlocutory judgment of default, shall file a
34 verified answer within thirty days of the date of service which shall not only admit or deny the 35 allegations of the petition, but shall also set forth:

36 (1) The Social Security number of the petitioner, respondent and each child;

37 (2) Any arrangements as to the custody and support of the child and the maintenance of 38 each party; and

39 (3) The relief sought.

41 to condonation, connivance, collusion, recrimination, insanity, and lapse of time, are abolished.

42 7. The petitioner and respondent shall submit a proposed parenting plan, either 43 individually or jointly, within thirty days after service of process or the filing of the entry of 44 appearance, whichever event first occurs of a motion to modify or a petition involving custody
45 or visitation issues. The proposed parenting plan shall set forth the arrangements that the party
46 believes to be in the best interest of the minor children and shall include but not be limited to:

93 parenting plan setting forth the arrangements specified in subsection 7 of this section which will
