FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Office of Attorney General, Department of Public Safety – Missouri State Highway Patrol, – Missouri State Water Patrol, and the Office of State Public Defender assume the proposed legislation would have no fiscal impact on their agencies.

Officials from the Office of State Courts Administrator assume the proposed legislation would have no fiscal impact on the courts.

Officials from the Office of Prosecution Services assume the proposed legislation would have no fiscal impact on prosecutors.

Officials from the Springfield Police Department assume there would likely be a few dollars generated as copies of reports are sold to relatives. The revenues would be hard to estimate, but would probably be under $100 per year. The Springfield Police Department also anticipates some additional labor and copy expenses. These costs are not expected to exceed $1,000.

ASSUMPTION (continued)

Oversight assumes the Springfield Police Department could absorb any additional labor and copy expenses resulting from the proposed legislation. Also, any costs would be partly offset by revenues from the sale of copies.

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

DESCRIPTION

Under current law, any person involved in an incident for which a police report was filed may obtain a copy of the police incident report, if needed for a civil action. The proposed legislation would allow the parent or child of the person to obtain the information when the person is deceased or has been judged incompetent.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
