

SECOND REGULAR SESSION
HOUSE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR
SENATE BILL NO. 1076
92ND GENERAL ASSEMBLY

---

Reported from the Committee on Judiciary, May 10, 2004, with recommendation that the House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 1076 Do Pass.

STEPHEN S. DAVIS, Chief Clerk

4042L.02C

---

AN ACT

To repeal section 461.300, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to nonprobate transfers.

---

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 461.300, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 461.300, to read as follows:

461.300. 1. Each recipient of a recoverable transfer of a decedent's property shall be liable to account for a pro rata share of the value of all such property received, to the extent necessary to discharge the statutory allowances to the decedent's surviving spouse and dependent children, and claims remaining unpaid after application of the decedent's estate, including expenses of administration and costs as provided in subsection 3 of this section, and including estate or inheritance or other transfer taxes imposed by reason of the decedent's death only where payment of those taxes is a prerequisite to satisfying unpaid claims which have a lower level of priority. No proceeding may be brought under this section when the deficiency described in this subsection is solely attributable to costs and expenses of administration.

2. The obligation of a recipient of a recoverable transfer may be enforced by an action for accounting commenced within eighteen months following the decedent's death by the decedent's personal representative or a qualified claimant, but no action for accounting under this section shall be commenced by any qualified claimant unless the personal representative has received a written demand therefor by a qualified claimant

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law. Matter in boldface type in the above law is proposed language.

16 within sixteen months following the decedent's death. If the personal representative fails 17 to commence an action within thirty days of the receipt of a written demand to do so, any 18 qualified claimant may commence such action. If the personal representative fails to 19 commence the action, the personal representative shall disclose to the qualified claimant 20 or qualified claimants who made such written demand all material knowledge within the 21 possession of the personal representative reasonably relating to the identity of any recipient
22 of a recoverable transfer made by the decedent. In the event the personal representative 23 fails to provide such information with respect to any recoverable transfer of the decedent's 24 property to the personal representative, the eighteen-month limitation is tolled for such 25 recoverable transfer until such time as the personal representative provides such 26 information. In the event the personal representative is alleged in a verified pleading to 27 be a recipient of a recoverable transfer from the decedent, the court may appoint an 28 administrator ad litem to represent the estate in any proceeding brought pursuant to this 29 section. Sums recovered in an action for accounting under this section shall be 30 administered by the personal representative as part of the decedent's estate.

31         3. The judgment in a proceeding authorized by this section shall take into account 32 the expenses of administration of the estate including the cost of administering the 33 additional assets obtained in the proceeding, and the costs of the proceeding to the extent 34 authorized by this subsection. The court may order the costs of the proceeding, including 35 attorney fees, to be treated as expenses of administration of the estate.

36         4. If an action for accounting has been commenced under this section within 37 eighteen months following the decedent's death, then any party to the proceeding may join 38 and bring into the action for accounting any other recipient of a recoverable transfer of the 39 decedent's property even if the other recipient is not joined until more than eighteen
40 months following the decedent's death. If an action for accounting has been commenced 41 under this section more than eighteen months following the decedent's death pursuant to 42 the tolling provisions of subsection 2 of this section, then the personal representative, or 43 former personal representative, who received a recoverable transfer of the decedent's 44 property shall be liable to account under the provisions of subsection 1 of this section for 45 the value of all such property received by such personal representative, or former personal 46 representative, and no other recipient of a recoverable transfer of the decedent's property
47 may be joined or brought into the action, and in such case, full recovery, rather than pro 48 rata recovery, may be had from the recoverable property received by such personal 49 representative or former personal representative.

50         5. This section shall not affect the right of any transferring entity, as defined in 51 section 461.005, to execute a direction of the decedent to make a payment or to make a

52 recoverable transfer on death of the decedent, or make the transferring entity liable to the 53 decedent's estate, unless before the payment or transfer is made the transferring entity has 54 been served with process in a proceeding brought under this section and the transferring 55 entity has had a reasonable time to act on it.

56       6. This section does not create a lien on any property that is the subject of a 57 recoverable transfer, except as a lien may be perfected by the way of attachment, 58 garnishment, or judgment in an accounting proceeding authorized by this section.

59       7. An action for accounting under the provisions of this section may be filed in the 60 probate division of the circuit court, and the probate division of the circuit court may hear 61 and determine questions and issue appropriate orders in an action for accounting under 62 this section. Any proceeding under this section and any statements by a personal 63 representative in connection with any recoverable transfer shall be deemed to be 64 proceedings or statements under the probate code that are subject to section 472.013,
65 RSMo.

66       8. The recipient of any property held in trust that was subject to the satisfaction of 67 the decedent's debts immediately prior to the decedent's death, and the recipient of any 68 property held in joint tenancy with right of survivorship that was subject to the satisfaction 69 of the decedent's debts immediately prior to the decedent's death, are subject to this 70 section, but only to the extent of the decedent's contribution to the value of the property.

71       9. The provisions of this section shall apply to all actions commenced after August
72 28, 1995, except that with respect to decedents dying prior to August 28, 1995, an action 73 for accounting under this section may be commenced within two years following the 74 decedent's death.

75       10. As used in this section, the following terms mean:

76       (1) "Creditor", any person to whom the decedent is liable, which liability survives
77 whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, and any person to whom the decedent's 78 estate is liable for funeral expenses and the reasonable cost of a tombstone;

79       (2) "Dependent child", the decedent's minor children whom the decedent was 80 obligated to support and the children who were in fact being supported by the decedent;

81       (3) "Qualified claimant", a creditor, surviving spouse, dependent child, or a person 82 acting for a dependent child of the decedent;

83       (4) "Recoverable transfer", a nonprobate transfer of a decedent's property under 84 sections 461.003 to 461.081 and any other transfer of a decedent's property other than from 85 the administration of the decedent's probate estate that was subject to satisfaction of the 86 decedent's debts immediately prior to the decedent's death, but only to the extent of the 87 decedent's contribution to the value of such property.

[461.300. 1. Each beneficiary who receives a nonprobate transfer of a decedent's property under sections 461.003 to 461.081 and each person who receives other property by a transfer other than from the administration of the decedent's probate estate that was subject to satisfaction of the decedent's debts immediately prior to the decedent's death, but only to the extent of the decedent's contribution to the value of such other property, shall be liable to account to the decedent's personal representative for a pro rata share of the value of all such property received, to the extent necessary to discharge the statutory allowances to the surviving spouse and unmarried minor children, and claims, remaining unpaid after application of the decedent's estate, including expenses of administration and costs as provided in subsection 3 of this section, and including estate or inheritance or other transfer taxes imposed by reason of the decedent's death only where payment of those taxes is a prerequisite to satisfying unpaid claims which have a lower level of priority. No proceeding may be brought under this section when the deficiency described in this subsection is solely attributable to costs and expenses of administration.

2. The obligation of a beneficiary of a nonprobate transfer or other recipient of property under subsection 1 of this section may be enforced by an action for accounting commenced within eighteen months following the decedent's death by the decedent's personal representative, a creditor of the decedent's estate, the decedent's surviving spouse or one acting for an unmarried minor child of the decedent, but no action for accounting under this section shall be commenced by any person unless the personal representative has received a written demand therefor by a creditor, surviving spouse or one acting for an unmarried minor child of the decedent. Sums recovered in an action for accounting under this section shall be administered by the personal representative as part of the decedent's estate except as provided in subsection 3 of this section.

3. The judgment in a proceeding authorized by this section shall take into account the expenses of administration of the estate including the cost of administering the additional assets obtained in the proceeding, and the costs of the proceeding to the extent authorized by this subsection. If the proceeding is commenced by a person other than the personal representative, the court may order the costs of the proceeding, other than attorney fees, to be charged against the amounts recovered and recoverable as a result of the proceeding. If the proceeding is commenced by the personal representative, the court may order the costs of the proceeding, including attorney fees, to be treated as expenses of administration of the estate.

44                   4. After an action for accounting has been commenced under 45 this section, any party to the proceeding may join and bring into the 46 action for accounting other persons who are liable to account to the 47 decedent's personal representative under subsection 1 of this section.

48                   5. This section shall not affect the right of any transferring 49 entity, as defined in section 461.005, to execute a direction of the 50 decedent to make a payment or to make a nonprobate transfer or other 51 transfer described in subsection 1 of this section on death of the 52 decedent, or make the transferring entity liable to the decedent's 53 estate, unless before the payment or transfer is made the transferring 54 entity has been served with process in a proceeding brought under this 55 section and the transferring entity has had a reasonable time to act on 56 it.

57                   6. This section does not create a lien on any property that is 58 the subject of a nonprobate transfer or other property not subject to 59 probate administration, except as a lien may be perfected by way of 60 attachment, garnishment or judgment in an accounting proceeding authorized by this section.

61                   7. An action for accounting under this section may be filed in 62 the probate division of the circuit court, and the probate division of 63 the circuit court may hear and determine questions and issue
64 appropriate orders in an action for accounting under this section.

65                   8. The recipient of any property held in trust that was subject 66 to the satisfaction of the decedent's debts immediately prior to the 67 decedent's death, and the recipient of any property held in joint 68 tenancy with right of survivorship that was subject to the satisfaction 69 of the decedent's debts immediately prior to the decedent's death, are 70 subject to this section, but only to the extent of the decedent's 71 contribution to the value of the property.

72                   9. This section shall apply to all actions commenced after 73 August 28, 1995, except that with respect to decedents dying prior to 74 August 28, 1995, an action for accounting under this section may be 75 commenced within two years following the decedent's death.]