

House Resolution Number

Whereas, Campus Compact is a national organization interested in promoting civic engagement on college and university campuses; and

Whereas, more than 900 colleges and universities across the country are members of Campus Compact; and

Whereas, Missouri is one of 29 states with a Campus Compact organization whose goal is to "help students develop the values and skills of civic participation through involvement in public service"; and

Whereas, the Missouri Campus Compact currently has 29 member institutions, both two-year and four-year, from across the state; and

Whereas, in cooperation with the Pew Charitable Trusts and National Campus Compact, the Missouri Campus Compact is participating in the two-year "Raise Your Voice" program, which includes conducting dialogues among student leaders on two major questions: 1) What public, civic issues are students interested in? and 2) How are students addressing these issues?; and

Whereas, approximately 100 students from across Missouri will participate in the second "Raise Your Voice" program in Jefferson City in February 2004; and

Whereas, the first year of the program in 2003 was highly successful and received positive feedback from the participants:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, hereby grant the Missouri Campus Compact permission to use the House Chamber on Thursday, February 12, 2004, from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. to conduct the "Raise Your Voice" student dialogues; and

Be it further resolved that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are encouraged to attend this event to become better informed about the perceptions, opinions, and ideas of the next generation of Missouri leaders.
