

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 92nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-FIRST DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 2, 2004

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Jetton in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Donald W. Lammers.

Lord God, You never forget any of Your people. Give us the vision and the discipline to think that way. Help us to give steady attention to the common good. As we listen to one another, and as we take our stand, as we study and research the issues, guide us to keep in focus what is best for the common good.

Holy Lord, while You never forget any of Your people, at the same time You have a special concern for the poor. We have poor children, the disabled poor, the elderly poor, and the working poor. As we work for the common good, give us a special concern, even an affection, for the poor.

When we never forget any of the people, and when we take special care of the poor, our work is godly. Today, O Lord, and every day, may our work be godly and may we be godly.

We pray to You, our God, forever and ever. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ericka Sayler, Billy Johnson, Allison Monnig, Jared Henderson, Rudy Jovanovic, Derek Walling, Chanel Mosley, Rachel Franck, Brenton Miller, Terry Smith, John Hayes, Grant Oserowsky, Alex Oserowsky, Charmmura Henderson and Quenasha Gray.

The Journal of the thirtieth day was approved as corrected by the following vote:

“408.040. 1. Interest shall be allowed on all money due upon any judgment or order of any court from the day of rendering the same until satisfaction be made by payment, accord or sale of property; all such judgments and orders for money upon contracts bearing more than nine percent interest shall bear the same interest borne by such contracts, and, except as provided by subsection 3 of this section, all other judgments and orders for money shall bear nine percent per annum until satisfaction made as aforesaid.

2. In tort actions, if a claimant has made a demand for payment of a claim or an offer of settlement of a claim, to the party, parties or their representatives, and to such party’s liability insurer if known to the claimant, and the amount of the judgment or order exceeds the demand for payment or offer of settlement, then prejudgment interest, [at the rate specified in subsection 1 of this section, shall] may be awarded, calculated from a date [sixty] ninety days after the demand or offer was [made] received, as shown by the certified mail return receipt, or from the date the demand or offer was rejected without counter offer, whichever is earlier. [Any such demand or offer shall be made in writing and sent by certified mail and shall be left open for sixty days unless rejected earlier.] In order to qualify as a demand or offer pursuant to this section, such demand must:

- (1) Be in writing and sent by certified mail return receipt requested; and
- (2) Be accompanied by an affidavit of the claimant describing the nature of the claim and theory of liability, the nature of any injuries claimed and a computation of any category of damages sought by the claimant with supporting documentation; and

If the claim is one for wrongful death, the affidavit may be signed by any person qualified pursuant to section 537.080, RSMo, to make claim for the death. The trial court, in its discretion, shall determine whether prejudgment interest is awarded. Nothing contained herein shall limit the right of a claimant, in actions other than tort actions, to recover prejudgment interest as otherwise provided by law or contract.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, in tort actions, a judgment for prejudgment interest awarded pursuant to subsection 2 of this section and post judgment interest should bear interest at a per annum interest rate equal to the coupon issue yield equivalent, as determined by the Federal Reserve Board, of the average accepted auction price for the last auction of the two-year United States Treasury Notes settled immediately prior to the date of the judgment.
