

HB 979 -- Resisting Arrest

Sponsor: Lipke (157)

Under current law, it is a class D felony to resist an arrest by fleeing in a manner that creates a substantial risk of serious physical injury or death. This bill clarifies that the crime also occurs when the person is fleeing from a detention or stop by a law enforcement officer.