

HB 1033 -- Community College District Trustees

Sponsor: Viebrock

This bill would eliminate the requirement to hold a community college district trustee election when the number of candidates equals the number of open positions. Currently, among nonpartisan elections for political subdivisions and special districts, only municipal and community college district trustee elections are required to be held under those circumstances.