

HCS HB 1090 -- PROPERTY INSURANCE

Under current law, a person may receive real property by a transfer on death clause in the deed. This bill makes the recipient automatically insured under the property insurance policy in effect at the time of the original owner's death. Coverage will last for 30 days or until the existing policy period ends, whichever occurs first.