

HB 1096 -- Transmission of Telephone Numbers

Sponsor: Wilson (130)

This bill requires telecommunication and information service providers to give the telecommunications company the phone number of the individual initiating a communication when the provider sends the communication via the telecommunications company's facilities.