

HB 1146 -- Small Claims Court

Sponsor: Stevenson

Under current law, a person may not file a claim in small claims court if that person has filed more than eight other claims during the current calendar year. This bill prohibits the filing of a claim by a person who has filed more than three other claims in a 30-day period or during the current calendar month.