

HB 1364 -- PARENTING PLANS

Currently, a joint parenting plan must be submitted by both parties to a dissolution or modification action that involves child custody or visitation. This bill makes the filing of the plan optional when the child is over the age of 18.