

HB 1475 -- Sewerage Services

Sponsor: Schneider

Under current law, water and sewerage services are deemed to be provided to both the occupant and the owner of the premises receiving the services. The entity providing the services may sue either the occupant, the owner, or both. This bill makes it solely the occupant's responsibility to pay for water and sewerage services and permits the providing entity to sue only the occupant for nonpayment.