

HB 1588 -- Real Estate Licensees

Sponsor: Byrd

This bill provides immunity for real estate licensees in regard to statements made by certain home inspection experts. Real estate licensees will not be subject to any action for information contained in a seller's disclosure unless the licensee is a signatory to false statements, knew prior to closing that certain statements were false, or was reckless as to whether the statements were true or false.