

HB 1623 -- Supervision of Paroled Persons

Sponsor: Brooks

This bill repeals the provision of the law which requires county superintendents of public welfare in third and fourth classification counties to provide supervision for persons who are on parole from the state penitentiary, the Missouri Reformatory, and certain training schools.