

HB 1632 -- Donated Venison

Sponsor: Hampton

Currently, donated venison must be processed in a facility that is inspected by the United States Department of Agriculture. This bill provides that it can also be inspected by the Missouri Department of Agriculture.