

HB 1672 -- College Bookstores

Sponsor: Stevenson

This bill requires state institutions of higher education to make any credit or financial aid granted for purchasing goods at a school store available for use in stores not owned by the institution. These institutions must provide a current list of required textbooks to non-school bookstores upon request.