

HB 1724 -- Fuel Storage

Sponsor: Pratt

Under current law, Missouri pre-empts the regulation of various fuels. This bill allows Jackson County and political subdivisions within the county to regulate the installation and placement of fuel storage tanks with a 48,000 gallon or more capacity.

The bill contains an emergency clause.