

HJR 57 -- Physical and Mental Health of Children

Sponsor: Sager

This proposed constitutional amendment prohibits the General Assembly, without a two-thirds majority in both chambers, from reducing coverage for children or increasing the proportionate share paid by families under Medicaid or the Children's Health Insurance Program from the levels in effect on January 1, 2004.