

SCS SB 788 -- EMERGENCY VEHICLES

Current law exempts emergency personnel from the commercial driver's license requirements when driving a vehicle in an emergency. This bill expands that exemption to include when driving an emergency vehicle in other functions such as parades and special events or for maintenance and repair service. The definition of "emergency vehicle" is changed to include vehicles operated by enforcement personnel of the Highways and Transportation Commission.

The bill contains an emergency clause.