AN ACT

To repeal section 595.209, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to rights of crime victims and witnesses.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 595.209, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 595.209, to read as follows:

595.209. 1. The following rights shall automatically be afforded to victims of dangerous felonies, as defined in section 556.061, RSMo, victims of murder in the first degree, as defined in section 565.020, RSMo, victims of voluntary manslaughter, as defined in section 565.023, RSMo, and victims of an attempt to commit one of the preceding crimes, as defined in section 564.011, RSMo; and, upon written request, the following rights shall be afforded to victims of all other crimes and witnesses of crimes:

(1) For victims, the right to be present at all criminal justice proceedings at which the defendant has such right, including juvenile proceedings where the offense would have been a felony if committed by an adult, even if the victim is called to testify or may be called to testify as a witness in the case;

(2) For victims, the right to information about the crime, as provided for in subdivision (5) of this subsection;

(3) For victims and witnesses, to be informed, in a timely manner, by the prosecutor's office of the filing of charges, preliminary hearing dates, trial dates, continuances and the final disposition of the case. Final disposition information shall be provided within five days;

(4) For victims, the right to confer with and to be informed by the prosecutor regarding

17 bail hearings, guilty pleas, pleas under chapter 552, RSMo, or its successors, hearings, sentencing 18 and probation revocation hearings and the right to be heard at such hearings, including juvenile 19 proceedings, unless in the determination of the court the interests of justice require otherwise;

20 (5) The right to be informed by local law enforcement agencies, the appropriate juvenile 21 authorities or the custodial authority of the following:

22 (a) The status of any case concerning a crime against the victim, including juvenile 23 offenses;

24 (b) The right to be informed by local law enforcement agencies or the appropriate 25 juvenile authorities, of the availability of victim compensation assistance, assistance in obtaining 26 documentation of the victim's losses, including, but not limited to and subject to existing law 27 concerning protected information or closed records, access to copies of complete, unaltered, 28 unedited investigation reports of motor vehicle, pedestrian, and other similar accidents upon 29 request to the appropriate law enforcement agency by the victim or the victim's representative, 30 and emergency crisis intervention services available in the community;

31 (c) Any release of such person on bond or for any other reason;

32 (d) Within twenty-four hours, any escape by such person from a municipal detention 33 facility, county jail, a correctional facility operated by the department of corrections, mental 34 health facility, or the division of youth services or any agency thereof, and any subsequent 35 recapture of such person;

36 (6) For victims, the right to be informed by appropriate juvenile authorities of probation
37 revocation hearings initiated by the juvenile authority and the right to be heard at such hearings 38 or to offer a written statement, video or audio tape in lieu of a personal appearance, the right to 39 be informed by the board of probation and parole of probation revocation hearings initiated by 40 the board and of parole hearings, the right to be present at each and every phase of parole
41 hearings and the right to be heard at probation revocation and parole hearings or to offer a written 42 statement, video or audio tape in lieu of a personal appearance, and the right to be informed by 43 the custodial mental health facility or agency thereof of any hearings for the release of a person 44 committed pursuant to the provisions of chapter 552, RSMo, the right to be present at such 45 hearings, the right to be heard at such hearings or to offer a written statement, video or audio tape
46 in lieu of personal appearance;

47 (7) For victims and witnesses, upon their written request, the right to be informed by the 48 appropriate custodial authority, including any municipal detention facility, juvenile detention 49 facility, county jail, correctional facility operated by the department of corrections, mental health 50 facility, division of youth services or agency thereof if the offense would have been a felony if 51 committed by an adult, postconviction or commitment pursuant to the provisions of chapter 552, 52 RSMo, of the following:

- 53 (a) The projected date of such person's release from confinement;
- 54 (b) Any release of such person on bond;
- 55 (c) Any release of such person on furlough, work release, trial release, electronic 56 monitoring program, or to a community correctional facility or program or release for any other 57 reason, in advance of such release;
- 58 (d) Any scheduled parole or release hearings regarding such person and any changes in 59 the scheduling of such hearings. No such hearing shall be conducted without thirty days' advance 60 notice;
- 61 (e) Within twenty-four hours, any escape by such person from a municipal detention 62 facility, county jail, a correctional facility operated by the department of corrections, mental 63 health facility, or the division of youth services or any agency thereof, and any subsequent 64 recapture of such person;
- 65 (f) Any decision by a parole board, by a juvenile releasing authority or by a circuit court
66 presiding over releases pursuant to the provisions of chapter 552, RSMo, or by a circuit court
67 presiding over releases pursuant to section 558.016, RSMo, or section 217.362, RSMo, to 68 release such person or any decision by the governor to commute the sentence of such person or 69 pardon such person;
- 70 (g) Notification within thirty days of the death of such person;
- 71 (8) For witnesses who have been summoned by the prosecuting attorney and for victims, 72 to be notified by the prosecuting attorney in a timely manner when a court proceeding will not 73 go on as scheduled;
- 74 (9) For victims and witnesses, the right to reasonable protection from the defendant or 75 any person acting on behalf of the defendant from harm and threats of harm arising out of their 76 cooperation with law enforcement and prosecution efforts;
- 77 (10) For victims and witnesses, on charged cases or submitted cases where no charge 78 decision has yet been made, to be informed by the prosecuting attorney of the status of the case 79 and of the availability of victim compensation assistance and of financial assistance and 80 emergency and crisis intervention services available within the community and information
81 relative to applying for such assistance or services, and of any final decision by the prosecuting 82 attorney not to file charges;
- 83 (11) For victims, to be informed by the prosecuting attorney of the right to restitution
84 which shall be enforceable in the same manner as any other cause of action as otherwise 85 provided by law;
- 86 (12) For victims and witnesses, to be informed by the court and the prosecuting attorney 87 of procedures to be followed in order to apply for and receive any witness fee to which they are 88 entitled;

89 (13) When a victim's property is no longer needed for evidentiary reasons or needs to be 90 retained pending an appeal, the prosecuting attorney or any law enforcement agency having 91 possession of the property shall, upon request of the victim, return such property to the victim
92 within five working days unless the property is contraband or subject to forfeiture proceedings, 93 or provide written explanation of the reason why such property shall not be returned;

94 (14) An employer may not discharge or discipline any witness, victim or member of a 95 victim's immediate family for honoring a subpoena to testify in a criminal proceeding or for 96 participating in the preparation of a criminal proceeding;

97 (15) For victims, to be provided with creditor intercession services by the prosecuting
98 attorney if the victim is unable, as a result of the crime, temporarily to meet financial obligations;

99 (16) For victims and witnesses, the right to speedy disposition of their cases, and for 100 victims, the right to speedy appellate review of their cases, provided that nothing in this 101 subdivision shall prevent the defendant from having sufficient time to prepare such defendant's
102 defense. The attorney general shall provide victims, upon their written request, case status 103 information throughout the appellate process of their cases. The provisions of this subdivision 104 shall apply only to proceedings involving the particular case to which the person is a victim or 105 witness;

106 (17) For victims and witnesses, to be provided by the court, a secure waiting area during 107 court proceedings and to receive notification of the date, time and location of any hearing 108 conducted by the court for reconsideration of any sentence imposed, modification of such 109 sentence or recall and release of any defendant from incarceration.

110 2. The provisions of subsection 1 of this section shall not be construed to imply any 111 victim who is incarcerated by the department of corrections or any local law enforcement agency 112 has a right to be released to attend any hearing or that the department of corrections or the local 113 law enforcement agency has any duty to transport such incarcerated victim to any hearing.

114 3. Those persons entitled to notice of events pursuant to the provisions of subsection 1 115 of this section shall provide the appropriate person or agency with their current addresses and 116 telephone numbers or the addresses or telephone numbers at which they wish notification to be 117 given.

118 4. Notification by the appropriate person or agency by certified mail to the most current 119 address provided by the victim shall constitute compliance with the victim notification 120 requirement of this section.

121 5. Victims' rights as established in section 32 of article I of the Missouri Constitution or 122 the laws of this state pertaining to the rights of victims of crime shall be granted and enforced
123 regardless of the desires of a defendant and no privileges of confidentiality shall exist in favor 124 of the defendant to exclude victims or prevent their full participation in each and every phase of 125 parole hearings or probation revocation hearings. The rights of the victims granted in this section 126 are absolute and the policy of this state is that the victim's rights are paramount to the defendant's 127 rights. The victim has an absolute right to be present at any hearing in which the defendant is 128 present before a probation and parole hearing officer.
