AN ACT

To repeal section 217.690, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to charging fees to offenders placed under board supervision.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 217.690, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 217.690, to read as follows:

217.690. 1. When in its opinion there is reasonable probability that an offender of a correctional center can be released without detriment to the community or to himself, the board may in its discretion release or parole such person except as otherwise prohibited by law. All paroles shall issue upon order of the board, duly adopted.

2. Before ordering the parole of any offender, the board shall have the offender appear before a hearing panel and shall conduct a personal interview with him, unless waived by the offender. A parole shall be ordered only for the best interest of society, not as an award of clemency; it shall not be considered a reduction of sentence or a pardon. An offender shall be placed on parole only when the board believes that he is able and willing to fulfill the obligations of a law-abiding citizen. Every offender while on parole shall remain in the legal custody of the department but shall be subject to the orders of the board.

3. The board has discretionary authority to require the payment of a fee, not to exceed sixty dollars per month, from every offender placed under board supervision on probation, parole, or conditional release, to waive all or part of any fee, to sanction offenders for willful nonpayment of fees, and to contract with a private entity for fee

17 section 217.430. Fees collected may be used to pay the costs of contracted collections 18 services. The fees collected may otherwise be used to provide community corrections and 19 intervention services for offenders. Such services include substance abuse assessment and 20 treatment, mental health assessment and treatment, electronic monitoring services, 21 residential facilities services, employment placement services, and other offender
22 community corrections or intervention services designated by the board to assist offenders
23 to successfully complete probation, parole, or conditional release. The board shall adopt 24 rules not inconsistent with law, in accordance with section 217.040, with respect to 25 sanctioning offenders and with respect to establishing, waiving, collecting, and using fees.

26 4. The board shall adopt rules not inconsistent with law, in accordance with section 27 217.040, with respect to the eligibility of offenders for parole, the conduct of parole hearings or 28 conditions to be imposed upon paroled offenders. Whenever an order for parole is issued it shall 29 recite the conditions of such parole.

30 [4.] 5. When considering parole for an offender with consecutive sentences, the 31 minimum term for eligibility for parole shall be calculated by adding the minimum terms for 32 parole eligibility for each of the consecutive sentences, except the minimum term for parole 33 eligibility shall not exceed the minimum term for parole eligibility for an ordinary life sentence.

34 [5.] 6. Any offender under a sentence for first degree murder who has been denied 35 release on parole after a parole hearing shall not be eligible for another parole hearing until at 36 least three years from the month of the parole denial; however, this subsection shall not prevent 37 a release pursuant to subsection 4 of section 558.011, RSMo.

38 [6.] 7. Parole hearings shall, at a minimum, contain the following procedures:

39 (1) The victim or person representing the victim who attends a hearing may be 40 accompanied by one other person;

41 (2) The victim or person representing the victim who attends a hearing shall have the 42 option of giving testimony in the presence of the inmate or to the hearing panel without the 43 inmate being present;

44 (3) The victim or person representing the victim may call or write the parole board rather 45 than attend the hearing;

46 (4) The victim or person representing the victim may have a personal meeting with a 47 board member at the board's central office;

48 (5) The judge, prosecuting attorney or circuit attorney and a representative of the local 49 law enforcement agency investigating the crime shall be allowed to attend the hearing or provide 50 information to the hearing panel in regard to the parole consideration; and

51 (6) The board shall evaluate information listed in the juvenile sex offender registry

52 pursuant to section 211.425, RSMo, provided the offender is between the ages of seventeen and 53 twenty-one, as it impacts the safety of the community.

54 [7.] 8. The board shall notify any person of the results of a parole eligibility hearing if 55 the person indicates to the board a desire to be notified.

56 [8.] 9. The board may, at its discretion, require any offender seeking parole to meet 57 certain conditions during the term of that parole so long as said conditions are not illegal or 58 impossible for the offender to perform. These conditions may include an amount of restitution 59 to the state for the cost of that offender's incarceration.

60 [9.] 10. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to require the release of an 61 offender on parole nor to reduce the sentence of an offender heretofore committed.

62 [10.] 11. Beginning January 1, 2001, the board shall not order a parole unless the 63 offender has obtained a high school diploma or its equivalent, or unless the board is satisfied that 64 the offender, while committed to the custody of the department, has made an honest good-faith 65 effort to obtain a high school diploma or its equivalent; provided that the director may waive this 66 requirement by certifying in writing to the board that the offender has actively participated in 67 mandatory education programs or is academically unable to obtain a high school diploma or its 68 equivalent.

69 12. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, 70 that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if 71 it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if 72 applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable
73 and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo,
74 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently 75 held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or 76 adopted after August 28, 2005, shall be invalid and void.
