FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials with the Department of Agriculture and Office of Administration - Division of Facilities Management, Design and Construction assume no fiscal impact to their agency.

Officials with the Department of Natural Resources assume this proposal would prevent the DNR from requiring permits at construction sites. Currently, the department does not require permits at construction sites. Therefore, no direct fiscal impact would be anticipated as a result of this proposal.

DESCRIPTION

This bill specifies that the Land Reclamation Commission will have no authority to regulate the excavation of minerals or fill dirt for the purpose of construction at excavation sites. No public entity, private person, or the contractor or subcontractor to a public entity or a private person will be required to obtain a permit for the purpose of moving minerals or fill dirt within the confines of real property where excavation occurs. Any private person, lessor, public entity, contractor, or subcontractor engaged in land improvement involving the displacement, moving, or removal of minerals and fill dirt may be required to obtain a surface mining permit in accordance with a determination by the commission.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
