

HB 37 -- Property Tax Credit for Educational Expenses

Sponsor: Davis

This bill authorizes a real property tax credit for residents of St. Charles County for educational expenses incurred for the taxpayer's child or children when the taxpayer declines educational services provided by any public school district within the county. The taxpayer must own real property within the county and have at least one child living in the home to qualify for this credit.