

HB 93 -- Public Officers and Employees

Sponsor: Zweifel

Currently, certain employees of public bodies have the right to form labor organizations and may not be discharged or discriminated against because of their participation or nonparticipation in the formation or the actions of labor organizations. This bill removes the prohibition of police, deputy sheriffs, and the State Highway Patrol from the public employees not entitled to these rights and protections.