

HB 425 -- Issuance of Securities

Sponsor: Parker

Currently, an investment firm, legal firm offering bond counsel services, or persons having interest in these firms are prohibited from being involved with the issuance of bonds authorized by an election if the person or firm made contributions to any campaign in support of the bond election. This bill repeals this provision.